

Mahalaya today

BSS, Dhaka

The Hindu community in the country will celebrate Mahalaya, the auspicious occasion heralding the advent of goddess Durga, today.

With the beginning of "Devipaksha", Mahalaya is observed six days before Durga Puja, the biggest religious festival of the Bengali Hindu community.

Mahalaya marks an invitation of sorts to goddess Durga to begin her journey from Kailash to her paternal home (earth), along with her children.

This invitation is extended through the chanting of mantras from Sri Sri Chandī and singing devotional songs. Countdown of Durga Puja begins with the celebration of Mahalaya.

On October 1, Durga Puja will begin with SEE PAGE 4 COL 7

'Won't tolerate harassment of women'

State minister for civil aviation on allegations against Biman high-ups

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Stern actions will be taken against those involved in harassing female cockpit crew in Biman Bangladesh Airlines, said State Minister for Civil Aviation M Mahub Ali at an event on Friday night.

He was talking to reporters after attending "Gala award ceremony of monitor airlines of the year" at a city hotel.

Mahub said the country's prime minister, opposition leader and speaker are women. Many are working in the top positions in army, navy and government services. There are many women who are working as secretaries, deputy commissioners and UNOs.

Therefore, the government will not tolerate any incident of harassment against women.

Nine out of 15 female cockpit crew members of Biman recently alleged that their bosses in training and scheduling departments discriminate and harass them so much that it even jeopardised flight safety on at least one occasion.

They said the work environment has become hostile due to intentional discrimination,

Narsingdi OC withdrawn

He allegedly didn't take robbery victim's complaint

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Narsingdi

Narsingdi Model Police Station Officer-in-Charge (OC) Firoz Talukder has been withdrawn from his post "for not accepting a written complaint of the victim of a mugging incident and making adverse comments towards him."

Additional Superintendent of Police (Narsingdi Sadar Circle) Faria Afroz confirmed it to The Daily Star yesterday.

Firoz was withdrawn on Friday night and was attached to Narsingdi District Police Lines the same day, she said. He has already been replaced by Abul Kashem Bhuiyan.

"Due to administrative reason, Firoz Talukder has been withdrawn and another officer had taken over his duty in the same night upon instructions from the higher authorities," she added.

It was alleged that Al-Mamun, an official of a private bank, was going to Dhaka in a rented private car from Bhairab on September 10 at night. Four muggers, in guise of passengers of the vehicle, tied his hands, legs and eyes, and took away his mobile phone at knife point.

After the car reached Narsingdi, they dropped him off. Later, the robbers' gang also took out Tk 1.9 lakh from Al-Mamun's ATM card from a nearby booth.

BNP playing 'evil game' to bolster movement

Says Quader

BSS, Dhaka

Awami League (AL) General Secretary Obaidul Quader yesterday said BNP is playing an "evil game" to strengthen its movement.

Quader, also road transport and bridges minister, said this while addressing the tri-annual conference of Gaibandha district unit of Awami League.

The minister joined the

To save Bangladesh, Awami League must be saved. To save the spirit of the Liberation War and democracy, Awami League must be saved.

People have given sanctions on them [govt]. People are saying they no longer want to see the current regime in power.

conference virtually from his residence in the capital. Regarding the statement of BNP Secretary General Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir that "farewell siren of the government has rang", he said for the last 14 years, the siren of the departure of the government has been ringing in the ears of Fakhrul, but not in the ears of the people.

BNP leaders see darkness instead of daylight as they wear black glasses, he added. "That's why they are unable to see these achievements and development," Quader said.

He further said the AL's committee should give importance

Jatiya Party will boycott polls if EVM is used

Says GM Quader

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Jatiya Party Chairman GM Quader yesterday said JP would not participate in any elections if the electronic voting machine is used.

He made this comment in a memorial meeting of party's former secretary general Zia Uddin Ahmed Bablu, at a convention centre in Chattogram.

Quader said instead of buying EVMs at a cost of around Tk 9,000 crore, the government should spend the money for the welfare of the poor.

The Jatiya Party chairman said time will tell whether the party would go for alliance with any party, adding that over a year is left for the next parliamentary polls.

"At present, we have plans for nominating candidates in all the 300 constituencies," he said.

Terming Zia Uddin Ahmed Bablu an honest and dedicated leader, GM Quader urged the party activists to follow his footsteps.

JP's co-chairman Anisul Islam Mahmud and party's secretary general Mujibul Haque Chunnun also spoke. Bablu died on October 2, 2021 at the age of 67.
