Karwan market building is also shown abandoned in the list of market branches of the city corporation's revenue department.

An official seeking anonymity, said, "I know it's (the building) risky since I joined service. The way the roof of the regional executive officer's room collapsed last month, there could've been a serious accident had he been there. The very next day, the roof of his assistant's room collapsed. Luckily, he wasn't in his room either."

The one who inspired one of the highest civilian awards, for his contribution to the art sector.

Talking with this newspaper, his fellows and disciples said that his death has created an irreparable vacuum. Samarjit was a devoted and true artist as well as an honest teacher, who inspired generations of students.

His son Surajit Roy Choudhury said his father died due to oldage complications. As his condition deteriorated, Samarjit was admitted to hospital on September 15.

He left behind his wife, son and daughter. A cloud of gloom affected the cultural and academic circles following the death. President Abdul Hamid and Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, along with others, expressed deep grief.

Yesterday, his body was taken to Dhaka University's Faculty of Fine Arts, where he taught students for 43 years till 2003. At the place, artists and students paid their last tribute to their beloved teacher.

State Minister of Culture KM Khalid, DU VC Md Akhtaruzzaman, dean of fine arts faculty Professor Nisar Hosain, along with others, paid their last respects as well.

Samarjit's body was later taken to Central Shaheed Minar. Various political, cultural and social organisations, as well as cultural personalities paid their respects.

"He [Samarjit] is one of the best artists of our country. Apart from art, he was a leader for the movement on the whole subject of art." said artist Rafiqun Nabi.

Renowned Hashem Khan said, "It is difficult to find a dedicated teacher like him. He has created his own language in painting. His pictures speak. He was the example of a good artist, a good teacher and a good person.'

Cultural personality Ramendu Maiumder said. "He was a humble artist. Our non-communal spirit, Liberation War have always come up in his paintings."

Later, Samarjit's last rites were completed at Sabujbagh crematorium.

Samarjit was born in 1937 in Cumilla. He was one of the five-member committees that decorated the constitution Bangladesh in 1972.
