

Appeal for help

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Chandra Banerjee (56), a stage actress, has been suffering from uterus cancer for the last two years.

Chandra from Dumuria in Khulna, who lost her husband in 2018, has already spent all her savings and borrowed a good amount of money to continue her treatment.

"We have already spent around Tk 8 lakh, including the Tk 5 lakh loan we took. We need Tk 5 lakh more to continue her chemotherapy, which is required this month," said Chandra's son Prodip Banerjee.

Doctors say it is possible to cure her with modern treatment.

Chandra received first prize from Bangladesh Shilpkala Academy for her book "Gonga Putra Vishwa" in 1994-95. She worked as an actress with various groups -- including Protima Opera, Mikel Opera, Songhita Opera, Rajmahal Opera and Padma Opera. She also played the directorial role with Rang Mahal Opera.

Her family has requested her well-wishers and the well-off of the society to come forward with financial help.

Aid can be sent to Chandra Banerjee, A/C No: 20502320201200604, Islami Bank Bangladesh Ltd, Paikgacha Branch, Khulna; bKash: 01307341834.

An orchard

"We work in the orchard all year round. We are also learning about different unknown fruits and gathering knowledge about their cultivation," he said.

"Green Venture Agro is an ideal fruit orchard in the upazila," said Reajul Bari, upazila sub-assistant agriculture officer.

"We are also giving them all types of technical support for their development," he added.

At first glance, neither the ball nor the field might look appropriate for a game of football. But what hindrances can these minor inconveniences cause to a group of youngsters just looking for a fun game? The photo was taken yesterday in Sylhet Sadar upazila's Mogolgaon area.

anymore, as the place is always abuzz with the

biryani shop's customers.

Besides, the size of the already small park has reduced significantly

because of the makeshift-

restaurant, they added.

Abdul Hai, a resident of

Mokimbazar, Bangshal,

said this park used to be bigger.

"There was a library here.

People came here to read books, walk and play. But the park gradually died."

DSCC Chief Property

Officer Russell Sabrin said

there's no scope to run a biryani place after taking permission for a coffee

cart.

"We will cancel our

agreement if the conditions

of the lease are being violated," he added.
