UNB, Dhaka

A low-pressure area formed over North Andaman Sea, adjoining areas of South Andaman Sea and southeast of the Bay of Bengal is likely to intensify into a cyclonic storm and reach Bangladesh and West Bengal coasts on October 25, said India Meteorological Department.

IMD advised fishers to not venture into deep sea from October 23 until further notice in anticipation of the formation of the storm.

In Mymensingh, footpaths are for tyre business!

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

Both sides of the footpath on the Patgoda road in Mymensingh have been occupied by vendors, mostly selling old tyres and similar products.

Locals said the business has created a public nuisance, as they cannot use the walkway anymore.

Not just this one, many of the city's footpaths remain occupied by vendors as they continue to run their businesses there in full swing.

Ahmed Ali, a city dweller, said the place is near the busy Shambhuganj Bridge, which is an entrance to the city's important areas.

He said there is always heavy traffic on both sides of the bridge. "Previously, we used to get off our vehicles and walk to our destinations whenever there were gridlocks. But we cannot even walk peacefully as the footpaths are occupied," he lamented.

Echoing the same, local Shukur Chand said there are often altercations between pedestrians and vendors over the matter.

The encroachers are mostly backed up by politically influential people, claimed Abdul Hye, a restaurant worker.

Advocate Nazrul Islam Chunnu, convener of Jonoudhkhog Mymensingh, a citizens' forum, shared the same sentiments.

"A sustainable plan should be taken to evict such illegal businesses from the city footpaths," he added.

Nurul Amin Kalam, secretary of Mymensingh Nagarik Andolon, said Surja Kanta Hospital (SK Hospital), the only diarrhoea hospital in Mymensingh, is near the place.

"Patients often struggle to get into the hospital because of the menace," he said.

Syed Mahbubur Rahman, traffic inspector in Mymensingh, said occupying footpaths is one of the major causes behind traffic jams in the city.

"We generally handle the issue strictly," he added.

Md Aminul Islam, assistant secretary of Mymensingh City Corporation, said they regularly conduct drives to evict vendors from the footpaths.

"We have not been fully successful in keeping the footpaths free for pedestrians, but we are trying," he said.

Previously, we used to get off our vehicles and walk to our destinations whenever there were gridlocks. But we cannot even walk peacefully as the footpaths are occupied.
