Will oust Quader

claimed that all JP lawmakers except three are siding with Raushan in this conflict.

Responding to Ranga's outburst, GM Quader yesterday told The Daily Star that Ranga has no position in the party.

In the other event observing "Upazila Day", organised at JP chairman's Banani office, participants, including Quader, criticised the government.

The fresh conflict between Quader and Raushan started brewing when she convened the party's 10th council -- which was scheduled for November 26 -- on August 31.

The day after, JP Parliamentary Party at a meeting decided to remove Raushan from the post of the opposition leader.

Sources said the Awami League higher-ups are allegedly backing the pro-Raushan group to put pressure on Quader for his sharp criticism of the government.

Similarly, a strike, which was not declared earlier, was enforced in Mymensingh ahead of the party's rally on October 15.

When a reporter asked about the reason behind such strikes, the minister did not directly answer.

He rather said, "Were the operation of buses suspended in Chattogram [before their rally]?"

They withdrew the strike immediately after the rally ended.
