

Suraiya Khandker passes away

STAR REPORT
Suraiya Khandker Emy, former scientist of Bangladesh Jute Research Institute (BJRI), passed away on October 28 at the age of 69, said a press release.
She breathed her last at 2:30am at Evercare Hospital. She left behind her husband Dr Tarek Al Naser, son Dr Zoheb Nasir, daughter Anika Nasir (economist) and three grandchildren.
Her namaz-e-janaza was held at Banani Baitul Aman Jame Mosque. She was buried at Banani Graveyard.

with a decision in this regard for two months but nothing happened. It seems like she has been dillydallying... that's why we decided to boycott the parliament," said a JP lawmaker.
Rift between Quader and Raushan elevated as the JP boss on October 28 relieved opposition lawmaker Mashur Rahman Ranga from the post of opposition chief whip in parliament.
He was also expelled from the party, which created uncertainty regarding his membership in parliament.
Ranga was also relieved from the party's primary membership, implying that he has no connection with JP. JP Chairman Quader made the decision against Ranga -- for siding with Raushan and criticising Quader -- by exercising the special powers bestowed upon him in the party's charter.

Within two hours of Quader's decision, Raushan in a statement said the JP chief took the decision disobeying parliamentary rules.
There are total 26 lawmakers in the parliament from JP. In yesterday's JPPP meeting, 21 of them were present.
Raushan, her son and JP lawmaker Rahgir Almehi Ershad who are currently in Bangkok for Raushan's treatment, were not present at the meeting. Three other JP lawmakers -- AKM Salim Osman, Rana Mohammad Sohail and Ranga -- were also absent.

According to JP source, Salim Osman is currently undergoing treatment in Bangkok, while Rana is out of the capital.
Meanwhile in a latest development, Raushan has postponed the party's 10th council, which was scheduled to be held on November 26, her political secretary Golam Moshfi told The Daily Star.

Bhaban in Dhaka. She said the government is preparing all related institutions properly so that they could protect country's independence and sovereignty.
She said since coming to power in 2009 her government has transformed the navy into a true three-dimensional force to protect seabed, sea and the sky.
"I believe that induction of these two MPAs will strengthen navy's aviation capability," she said.
The Awami League government is also working tirelessly for socioeconomic development of country apart of developing the armed forces, the PM said.

The worldwide economic recession has impacted Bangladesh too but "we have to try to get rid of this impact," she added.

At the event, Chief of Naval Staff Admiral M Shaheen Iqbal gave the vote of thanks.

"We cannot find meaning of some of the names," said an EC official, involved in preparing list of parties that sought registration. They provided some examples of names including Bairabairy Party, Mushkil League, Naakphool Bangladesh, Bangladesh Itady Party, Naitik Samaj and Bangladesh Bekar Samaj.
The EC on May 26 started the registration process for new political parties ahead of the 12th National Election, likely to be held late December 2023 or early January 2024.

EC Alamgir also said the commission is planning to hold election to the Rangpur City Corporation in late December of early January using electronic voting machine and bringing all polling centres under the coverage of CCTV cameras.
"We are planning to announce the schedule in November," he said.

BRTC

MAN Siddique, DMTCI managing director, said there would be a provision in the MoU with an option to hire private bus operators to provide services to the passengers.
He said the buses will connect the major hubs in the capital like Farmgate, Shahbagh, Mohakhali and Gulistan. "The design for the pick-up and drop points at both ends have already been finalised and will be ready before the launching of metro rail services," he added.
Siddique said BRTC will provide better quality buses for the services.
However, transport expert Prof Hadiuzzaman said as the authorities are opening the service partially, they are unlikely to have any approximate estimates about the possible number of passengers. "Under such circumstances, it would be very difficult to prepare a plan for shuttle or feeder services," he said.
"Agargaon is already a congested area. The partial operation will intensify the traffic congestion due to lack of space for a bus stoppage," he added.

They scammed retired officials to embezzle

The DB chief said a fraudster, introducing himself as an employee of Bangladesh Netherlands Recycling Power Plant project, called a retired additional secretary. At one point in the conversation, he offered the additional secretary a job as a project consultant.
The victim went to an office in Mirpur area on October 16. Two days later, another member of the racket introduced himself as the manager of an Indian

He told the other members that his Indian boss would buy glasses, watches and cameras worth Tk 16 crore. If they supply these goods to the Indian boss, they will get 30 percent profit.
Samples of these goods must be collected and shown to the Indian boss for which Tk 75 lakh is needed, he said.
Fraudsters offer the victim an investment in shares in the said business. Although the victim initially did not agree, he eventually became interested in investing in the fake business and gave Tk 5 lakh to the fraudsters on October 19, said Harun.

Later the fraudsters told the victim that the Indian boss liked the sample. The next day, when the victim went to the office, he found that the Indian boss had given them a cheque of Tk 4.8 crore as a 30 percent advance.
Then the fraudsters asked the victim to pay another Tk 50 lakh to purchase the whole amount of goods. At one point, the victim realised the deception and sought DB's help.

The DB chief said the racket similarly cheated a retired official of Islamic Foundation and embezzled Tk 27.5 lakh from him.
The arrestees used to introduce themselves as doctors, engineers and businessmen. Lured by their assuring words, many high officials also fell into their trap, added the official.
A fraud case has been filed with Mohammadpur Police Station in this regard.

Md Mostafizur Rahman, RHD executive engineer in Sylhet, said, "As the bridge was previously renovated by the railway department and they have the expertise to work with steel structures, we commissioned the work to Bangladesh Railway."
Mohammad Abrar Hossain, bridge engineer (eastern zone) of railway, said, "The agreement with the contractor was signed last month and the contractor has given a one year time frame to complete the bridge's restoration."
"Mainly the steel parts will be replaced and the structure will be strengthened. The manufacturing process of steel parts has already started and the physical work at the site will start soon," he added.

Abdul Hye Al-Hadi, chief coordinator of Save the Heritage and Environment, said, "As a nation, we have been known for negligence towards heritage sites. But this initiative for the Keane bridge restoration must be appreciated. Such work will encourage other government departments to give heritage sites the utmost importance."
