

Murder to fund

FROM PAGE 5
The three others are Anika's friend Raju (23), his younger brother Raihan (20), and Saeed (20).

Anika and Alvi planned a tour with their friends, for which they needed money.

The duo, along with Raju, planned to inject Mansur with a sedative to take his money, the police official said.

Anika made a duplicate key to the flat and gave it to Raju, who then got Raihan and Saeed involved.

Around 10:00pm on November 17, the three entered the house when other family members were not home.

The trio then assaulted the old man, tied his hands and legs and sedated him.

Other family members later took an unconscious Mansur to DMCH, where doctors declared him dead.

The family filed a case with Chawkbazar Police Station, stating that unidentified people killed Mansur and took away some cash and valuables worth around Tk 12 lakh.

Initially suspected as a robbery, the investigation took a turn when they found a syringe at the flat, said Biplob.

Scrap plastic collectors have set up shop by occupying this road, and to add to the trouble, large trucks have been parked against the large sacks full of waste -- leaving no room for commuters to use the road. This photo was taken near Lalbagh in the capital's Kamrangirchar area yesterday.

Three accused brought to court

The move came a day after two death-row militants in the murder cases of bloggers Faisal Arefin Dipan and Avijit Roy were snatched away by their cohorts from the Chief Judicial Magistrate's Court of Dhaka.

Meanwhile, Judge Sheikh Samidul Islam of the Third Additional Metropolitan Sessions Judge's Court of Dhaka yesterday fixed January 31, 2023, for recording the statement of complainant Monir Hossain Masud in the Oyasiqur murder case.

Earlier, the same court summoned the complainant 63 times and even ordered his arrest, only to get his all-important testimony. The prosecution and the police could not produce him, stating that he was living in Saudi Arabia, according to court documents.

However, Masud, a cousin and also brother-in-law of Oyasiqur, now lives in Dhaka. The Daily Star caught up with him in Arambagh area, where he runs a grocery shop.

DB submitted the case's charge sheet to a Dhaka court on September 2, 2015, accusing five members of ABT. Two of the accused -- Akram Hossain Hasib alias Boro Bhai and Junayed Ahmed alias Taher -- are currently on the run.

The five accused hacked Oyasiqur in Tejgaon industrial area on March 30, 2015.

First EU-Bangladesh dialogue

EU will have another programme called "GSP Plus" for duty-free benefits that will, however, require conditions of improving governance and labour standards, democracy, human rights and improved environmental standards.

A foreign ministry official said EU has launched a new programme called "Talent Partnership", and Bangladesh has been included in it.

"Europe -- especially Italy, Greece, Spain and Portugal -- has slowly become a destination for Bangladeshi migrants. EU insists on preventing irregular migration, and we are working on it," he told this correspondent yesterday.

On the labour issue, Bangladesh has made significant progress, and the EU is happy about it, the official also said.

The official also said the EU has been a strong supporter of Bangladesh on Rohingya issue, and this will be addressed in the dialogue. Bangladesh will seek technological support for renewable energy and funding for climate change adaptation.

Besides, EU has taken a strong stance of Russia's invasion against Ukraine and it will also ask Bangladesh to be on its side.

The dialogue will feature the issue of a free and open Indo-Pacific, and cooperation on anti-terrorism efforts, a diplomatic source said.

Rashed Khan Menon, president of Workers Party, said the law is under the control of bureaucrats.

"The current Cooperative Societies Act only safeguards bureaucrats and other members with power. They have been enjoying the benefits of this law," he added.

Presiding over the programme, economist Prof Abul Barkat said, "Bangladesh has two crore bighas of khas land and reservoirs. There are one crore landless households. The government distributed around 12 percent of this land among the people. The rest remains unallocated."

Ruhin Hossain Prince, general secretary of Communist Party of Bangladesh, said, "If the concept cooperative societies had been realised, there would not have been a food crisis in the country. Social and political movement, along with law reform, should occur simultaneously."

Prof Shima Zaman, acting dean of Dhaka University's law faculty, spoke at the event along with around a dozen rights activists.

A sextortion allegation was raised against him by a student of the college. She filed a case on July 7, 2018, with Hazaribag Police Station. He was arrested and sent to jail in connection with the case.

Later, he was released on bail in the case. In June 2019, the MoPA suspended Rezaul from service.

The MoPA launched departmental proceedings against Rezaul in 2019, after the victim alleged that the accused threatened her to withdraw the case.

On August 14, 2022, the ministry decided to send him on compulsory retirement, which the Public Service Commission approved.

President Abdul Hamid also approved the decision.

Contacted, MoPA Additional Secretary Dr Farid Uddin Ahmed said the investigation officer delayed completing the investigation.

"We have decided to give investigation officers six months to complete any probe in future," he said.

For major punishments, the MoPA needs to seek opinions from the PSC and the president, which takes up to two months.

"We are hopeful to complete future investigations within eight months," he said.
