Finds public works probe

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Ruling Awami League lawmaker and former national footballer Abdus Salam Murshedy has been illegally occupying a house in the capital's Gulshan for long, finds a probe committee of the housing and public works ministry.

The committee in a report submitted to the ministry on November 20 said the illegally occupied house, situated in CEN (D) Block on Road No-104 in Gulshan-2, can be taken back to the government's possession immediately.

It added that legal actions can be taken against those involved in the forgery.

The Daily Star called Murshedy, a lawmaker from Khulna, over the phone for comments, but he did not receive the phone calls.

RANGPUR CITY POLLS

JP relieved, AL troubled over rebels

KONGKON KARMAKER

While the Jatiya Party has apparently succeeded in talking its rebel candidates out of the upcoming Rangpur city mayoral race, the ruling Awami League is still facing a difficult situation with two of its rebels already having filed nomination papers.

Meanwhile, the AL has picked its candidate for the mayoral election, slated for December 27.

On the other hand, the BNP and Jamaat-e-Islami have announced they would not be taking part in the polls.

As many as 13 aspirants from different parties have collected nomination papers, and of them, 10 have filed their candidacy for the mayoral post.

They are Md Amiruzzaman from Islami Andolon Bangladesh; Md Abu Raihan from Bangladesh Congress; Md Latifur Rahman (independent/AL rebel); Md Touhidur Rahman Mondal from Khelafat Majlish; Md Mostafizar Rahman from Jatiya Party; Md Safiar Rahman from Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal; Md Ataur Zaman Babu (independent/AL rebel); Hosne Ara Lutfi Dalia from AL; Md Mehdi Hasan (independent); and Khorshed Alam of Zaker Party.

AL rebels Latifur Rahman, president of Rangpur Kotwali AL, and Ataur Rahman, president of Rangpur Mahanagar Swechchasebak League, are still in the election.

On the other hand, Mostafizur Rahman, incumbent Rangpur City Corporation (RCC) mayor and Jatiya Party's presidium member, was the party-nominated candidate but a division in the party was exposed after Abdur Rouf Manik, a loyalist of Raushan Ershad, collected nomination papers as an independent/rebel for the polls.

Manik, however, did not file the papers after GM Quader, chairman of the party, settled the issue with Raushan Ershad at a city hotel on Monday -- a night before the final

8 hurt as pro-AL men swoop on BNP rally

Opposition men start gathering in Rajshahi for Dec 3 gathering

STAR REPORT

At least eight BNP men were injured after an attack allegedly by Chhatra League and Jubo League men on a rally at Faridpur Press Club yesterday afternoon.

In Rajshahi, BNP leaders alleged that 55 party leaders and activists from different districts of the division were arrested in several false cases ahead of its December 3 divisional rally there.

Faridpur BNP leaders claimed that the attack was carried out in front of police.

Faridpur town unit BNP organised the rally protesting filing of "false" cases against party men, arrests, and torture by police.

Witnesses said Chhatra League and Jubo League men reached in front of the press club chanting "Joy Bangla" slogan and started throwing brick chunks at the club from outside. As Shahidur Rahman, organising secretary of Faridpur district Jubo Dal, started his speech around 4:00pm, at least 30-35 youths wearing helmets and masks and carrying sticks attacked the venue.

The attackers snatched banners, vandalised
