

Shamsul Alam

His namaz-e-janaza will be held at Gulshan Azad mosque after Juma prayers today (Friday). Later, he will be laid to eternal rest at the Banani graveyard.

He was awarded Bir Uttam for his gallantry in the Liberation War in 1971. He was a member of "Operation Kilo Flight", the first bombing raid of brave Bangladeshi pilots during the Liberation War. The operation had significantly turned the tide of the war, as it decimated Pakistan army's oil supply and made it impossible for them to continue a prolonged war.

In early stage of his career, Shamsul served the erstwhile Pakistan Air Force as a commissioned officer in 1967. He received special training in operating fighter jets and commercial planes.

After the Liberation War started, he was put under tight surveillance in Pakistan Air Force's Chaklala base until June. He fled to Bangladesh but was caught by the Pakistani military at Tejgaon airport.

He escaped in August and managed to get to India.

Before retiring in 1984, he served different important posts in Bangladesh Air Force.

Shamsul received Swadhinata Padak, the highest civilian award bestowed by the government, in 2017.

Confidence Group expressed deep shock and sorrow at the death of Shamsul and prayed for eternal peace of the departed soul.

his mother, wife and daughter – played a tremendous role in his life.

He also urged women and girls to achieve great things with their skills, talent and willpower.

Like every year, a total of six women and girls, including a transwoman, were recognised with the "Human Rights Winner Awards" at the event.

A similar statement was issued yesterday by US Ambassador to Bangladesh Peter Haas who stressed on the right of all for peaceful demonstrations.

On Wednesday, 15 foreign missions issued a joint statement ahead of the International Human Rights Day on December 10 that also coincides with the scheduled BNP rally.

Momen said the US and Bangladesh do not want violence.

"We will maintain maximum restraint. The US also does not allow big rallies on the streets or in front of the White House. They will not allow any public meeting on the streets of Manhattan in New York. There is a rule, a system."

He said all people in Bangladesh have the right to speech. It is a free country.

"If you listen to the discussions on YouTube, talk shows and TV channels ... the government has not prevented anyone from speaking...we believe in freedom of speech. There are few countries that have so much freedom like Bangladesh."

On travel advisory by the US and UK, Momen said the situation in the country is not bad at all. Some may issue such alerts to create panic.

Of checkpoints and sufferings

Meanwhile, plying of buses to and from Dhaka was comparatively less than usual, said staffers of different bus companies.

At Saidabad, Hanif Paribahan's lineman Nazrul Islam said eight trips of the Sylhet-Moulvibazar route have been cancelled due to a passenger crisis.

Meanwhile, the number of buses inside the capital was relatively low yesterday. Many passengers were seen waiting at different bus stoppages.

Elderlies, women, children, HSC candidates and their guardians were the worst sufferers.

Mahbubur Rahman, organising secretary of Dhaka Road Transport Owners Association, said many bus owners have refrained from plying buses fearing violence following the clash between BNP activists and police on Wednesday.

Dhaka Road Transport Owners Association in a statement yesterday afternoon assured that the movement of public transport in Dhaka and inter-district routes will be normal on December 10.

Case, arrest spree on ahead of Dec 10 rally

In Kushtia, police on Tuesday filed two cases against 47 BNP men over their involvement in subversive activities.

Police have so far arrested four BNP men in the last two days in connection with the cases. BNP district unit's general secretary Sohrab Uddin said police have filed the ghost cases only to harass the partymen.

Contacted, officers-in-charge (OCs) of both the police stations said the accused are involved in subversive activities.

In Cumilla, police arrested two BNP leaders yesterday from the city's Badurtola area.

The arrestees are Ashiqur Rahman Mahmood Wasim, joint convener of Cumilla district (south) unit BNP, and Jahirul Islam, vice-president of the district unit Jubo Dal. They were arrested when the partymen tried to bring out a protest rally yesterday noon.

OC of Cumilla's Kotwali Police Station Ahmed Sanjur Morshed said the duo were accused in criminal cases.

In Patuakhali, a BNP man was arrested early in the morning yesterday for his alleged involvement with cocktail bombs in Golachipa upazila.

The arrestee is Masudur Rahman, a local leader of BNP's front organisation Swechhhasebak Dal.

Earlier on Wednesday night, three cocktail bombs exploded in the upazila headquarters, and police seized seven more cocktails. But no one was hurt in the incident.

Contacted, Golachipa Police Station OC Shoshit Kumar Gayen said police were investigating whether the arrestee had any involvement with the incident.

Besides, police sued 885 BNP and its associate bodies' leaders mentioning names and over 2,250 unnamed others yesterday over Wednesday's clash between police and BNP men at Dhaka's Nayapaltn.
