Gazipur police arrested them at different places of the country on Wednesday night, said Gazipur Metropolitan Police Commissioner Mollah Nazrul Islam at a press briefing yesterday.

The arrestees - Nasir Mridha, Maruf Hossain, Jahidul Islam, Ashiqur Rahman, Kawsar Hossain, Rubel Hossain, Ashiqul Haque, Akram Hossain and Murad Hasan - are from Gazipur and Mymensingh.

On a tip off, police arrested Nasir, and following his confession, arrested the rest, said the police official. They used to bet on football and cricket matches and laundered money abroad using different apps, he said.

Of checkpoints and sufferings

Meanwhile, plying of buses to and from Dhaka was comparatively less than usual, said staffers of different bus companies.

At Saidabad, Hanif Paribahan's lineman Nazrul Islam said eight trips of the Sylhet-Moulvibazar route have been cancelled due to a passenger crisis.

Meanwhile, the number of buses inside the capital was relatively low yesterday. Many passengers were seen waiting at different bus stoppages. Elderlies, women, children, HSC candidates and their guardians were the worst sufferers. Mahbubur Rahman, organising secretary of Dhaka Road Transport Owners Association, said many bus owners have refrained from plying buses fearing violence following the clash between BNP activists and police on Wednesday. Dhaka Road Transport Owners Association in a statement yesterday afternoon assured that the movement of public transport in Dhaka and inter-district routes will be normal on December 10.

Case, arrest spree on ahead of Dec 10 rally

Ahead of BNP's December 10 grand rally in Dhaka.

In Savar and Ashulia, police have so far filed at least five false cases in the last two weeks, accusing some 200 named BNP men and some 300 unnamed, said Md Shariful Alam, joint secretary of BNP's Ashulia thana unit BNP.

At least 15 of the partymen have been arrested in the last few days, he claimed while talking to The Daily Star yesterday.

He alleged that police are doing this to deter the partymen from joining the Dhaka rally.

Contacted, Aminul Islam, Dhaka's additional superintendent of police, said law enforcers are raiding houses of only those who are accused in criminal cases. "This is part of our regular duty."

In Kushtia, police on Tuesday filed two cases against 47 BNP men over their involvement in subversive activities.

Police have so far arrested four BNP men in the last two days in connection with the cases.

BNP district unit's general secretary Sohrab Uddin said police have filed the ghost cases only to harass the partymen.

Contacted, officers-in-charge (OCs) of both the police stations said the accused are involved in subversive activities.

In Cumilla, police arrested two BNP leaders yesterday from the city's Badurtola area.

The arrestees are Ashiqur Rahman Mahmood Wasim, joint convener of Cumilla district (south) unit BNP, and Jahirul Islam, vice-president of the district unit Jubo Dal.

They were arrested when the partymen tried to bring out a protest rally yesterday noon.

OC of Cumilla's Kotwali Police Station Ahmed Sanjur Morshed said the duo were accused in criminal cases.

In Patuakhali, a BNP man was arrested early in the morning yesterday for his alleged involvement with cocktail bombs in Golachipa upazila.

The arrestee is Masudur Rahman, a local leader of BNP's front organisation Swechhchasebak Dal.

Earlier on Wednesday night, three cocktail bombs exploded in the upazila headquarters, and police seized seven more cocktails. But no one was hurt in the incident.

Contacted, Golachipa Police Station OC Shohit Kumar Gayen said police were investigating whether the arrestee had any involvement with the incident.

Besides, police sued 885 BNP and its associate bodies' leaders mentioning names and over 2,250 unnamed others yesterday over Wednesday's clash between police and BNP men at Dhaka's Nayapaltan.
