

Dilara Begum Parul no more

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Natore

Dilara Begum Parul, a spearhead of the women's movement in Natore and president of the district women's council, passed away yesterday.

She was 82 years old. She breathed her last around 8:45am at her residence in Shukulpatti area of Natore town.

She was bedridden for a long time due to pancreatic cancer.

Dilara has left behind her three sons and numerous well-wishers.

Leaders and workers of various social and cultural organisations -- including civil society and women's rights groups, as well as journalists and politicians of Natore -- expressed their grief and condolences.

Rafiqul Haider's 51st death anniv

CITY DESK

Today is the 51st death anniversary of Rafiqul Haider Chowdhury (Eshika), a martyred intellectual.

On this day in 1971, Razakars, the collaborators of the Pakistan Army, picked Rafiqul up from his 921, Shahidbagh residence, took him away blindfolded, and killed him.

North South University (NSU) yesterday organised a special screening of a documentary on Bir Pratik AS Ouderland to celebrate Victory Day and pay tribute to the Dutch soldier who fought on behalf of Bangladesh in the Liberation War. Thijs Woudstra, deputy head of mission at the Netherlands embassy in Dhaka; Prof Atiqul Islam, vice chancellor of NSU; and Abdus Salam, ex-public relations and shipping manager of Bata Shoe Company Ltd, who was confidential secretary to Ouderland during the war, were present at the programme as special guests.

many years. However, a local influential, Mosaraf Hossain, is allegedly extracting soil from the graveyard for filling his pond.

A part of the graveyard is currently in no condition for even a single burial.

"We warned him on multiple occasions, but he did not pay any heed to us," alleged the protestors.

Monjil Morshed, Abdur Rahman, Bablu Mia, Md Azim Uddin, Azgar Ali, Mizanur Rahman and Mojib Mondal were among the speakers.

Contacted, Mosaraf Hossain claimed the land of the graveyard belongs to him. Phulbari UNO Riaz Uddin said he received the residents' letter. "Action will be taken after investigating the matter."

functionaries, including Bangladesh Bank and payment gateway service providers.

On that day, Evaly's lawyer Ahsanul Karim prayed to the HC bench to pass an order so that the company can run its day-to-day affairs smoothly.

Lawyer Sayed Mahsib Hossain, who appeared for one Farhad Hossain, a depositor to Evaly, opposed the application.

However, the HC bench did not find any substance in opposing the application.

On September 19 this year, the HC-appointed board of directors of Evaly resigned some days after the bench ordered its existing board of directors to include the e-commerce platform's former chairman, Shamima Nasrin, her mother and brother-in-law as its members.

The five-member board of directors was appointed by the HC in October 2021.

Bangladesh Bank has reportedly found that Evaly's dues were Tk 404 crore as of the middle of March last year, including a liability of Tk 214 crore to its customers.
