

Parveen Alam passes away

STAR REPORT

Parveen Alam, daughter of Shaheed Salimullah, passed away at Apollo Cancer Hospital in Chennai, India on December 13. She was nearly 71, said a press release.

Her father Salimullah was martyred by Pakistani occupation forces on March 26 in 1971. Parveen Alam's brothers Sadi Mohammad and Shibli Mohammad are two renowned music and dance artists of Bangladesh.

She is survived by two children. Her son Syed Gousul Alam Shaon is managing partner and country head, Grey Advertising Bangladesh; and daughter Syeda Farah Mahjabeen. Her namaz-e-janaza will be held at Mohammadpur Eidgah Jame Masjid today after Juma prayers.

Through the process, the ring has pocketed crores, said the CTTC chief. "We have found transactions of around Tk 30 crore in just three months in a single MFS merchant account, operated by the mastermind Sony," he said. Asaduzzaman said the ring has several MFS accounts like this. Once the money is collected, the ring members used to transfer the money to different countries, including the Middle Eastern nations, through hundi.

He, however, did not give details of those countries. "We are now investigating how much money they have transferred so far."

A case was filed against the arrestees with Ramna Police Station under the Digital Security Act.

"Scrutinising his interview, we can understand that he kept spreading propaganda against Bangladesh abroad capitalising the human rights issue," said the statement.

"We strongly condemn such propaganda."

"We urge the government to remain alert on human rights issue so that evil forces do not get any opportunity," the statement added.

The statement's signatories include—Rights Activist Advocate Sultana Kamal, academician Prof Dr Syed Anwar Husain, Politician Pankaj Bhattacharya, Theatre Personality Ramendu Majumdar, Liberation War Museum Trustee, Dr Sarwar Ali; Rights activist Khushi Kabir, Bangladesh Hindu Buddhist Christian Oikya Parishad General Secretary Rana Dasgupta and Dhaka University Professor Robaet Ferdous.

The clash broke out in front of the party's Nayapalton office on December 7. It left one person dead and scores of others injured.

Meanwhile, BNP Senior Joint Secretary General Ruhul Kabir Rizvi was shown arrested in four other cases filed with Shahbagh Police Station in which arrest warrants were earlier issued.

Dhaka Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate Tofazzal Hossain passed the order after the prosecution submitted four petitions.

Rizvi was arrested from the BNP's Nayapalton office on November 7 in a case filed over the clashes with cops.

Growing up in Europe, Africa and Asia, Saleemul studied biochemistry and completed a PhD at Imperial College London, before returning to Bangladesh to find an environmental think tank, it mentioned.

By the 1990s, he had become active in international climate negotiations, as an adviser to climate-vulnerable countries, especially small island states, helping them to put their needs on the agenda in UN talks, it added.

The list also includes Dr Jane Rigby, an astronomer who helped launch NASA's James Webb Space Telescope; Yunlong Cao, Covid predictor; Svitlana Krakovska, a voice for Ukraine; Dimie Ogoina, a monkeypox watchman; Lisa McCorkell, a long-Covid advocate; Diana Greene Foster, an abortion fact-finder; António Guterres, a crisis diplomat; Muhammad Mohiuddin, a transplant trailblazer; and Alondra Nelson, a policy principal.

FROM PAGE 3 is BNP that, during its tenure from 2001 to 2006, corrupted the caretaker government by extending the retirement age of judges.

Razzaq stressed that institutional reforms are more imperative than talking about bringing back the caretaker government, which is temporary in nature.

"Yet, we are open for dialogue. BNP should also come with openness, not setting conditions for a caretaker government," he said.

Former ambassadors, politicians, academics and officials from various foreign embassies were present at the event.

NEW PRESIDENT, GENERAL SECRETARY Daisy Sarwar and Sharmin Sultana Lily have been made president and general secretary of Jubo Mohila League.

Awami League General Secretary Obaidul Quader made the announcement at the event.

Earlier, Hasina inaugurated the council around noon by hoisting the national and party flags. The last council of Jubo Mohila League was held in 2017. It was founded in 2002, with a convening committee headed by Nazma Akhter and Apu Ukil.

It held its first council on March 5, 2014, electing the two as president and general secretary, respectively. They were re-elected as president and general secretary at the organisation's second national triennial council on March 11, 2017.
