"We have to build a society based on equity and freedom from deprivation, and not just in words. We have to make it happen in reality," said Menon. Bangladesh Workers Party's General Secretary Fazle Hossain Badsha said it was the ruling Awami League's responsibility to resist the anti liberation

Police rushed to the spot and brought the situation under control, said Nabiganj Police Station OC Mohammad Dalim Ahmed. Contacted, Nazim, convener of Nabiganj upazila BCL, said they will talk to Awami League leaders over the matter.

and communal forces but they failed. "The spirit of the Liberation War and the principles of Bangabandhu only exist in chants in today's era of politics. If observed acutely, it will be evident that there is hardly any difference between the politics of BNP and the one done in the name of Bangabandhu," he added.

Resident Bangladeshis (NRBs) with Commercially Important Person (CIP) awards.

Of them, 57 NRBs received the award for "sending the highest amount of remittance through authorised channels" and another 10 NRBs got the award for "importing Bangladeshi goods".

NRB CIP Association President Mahtabur Rahman, who received the CIP Award at the programme for sending the highest amount of remittance through authorised channels, said expatriate Bangladeshis have been significantly contributing to the development of the country's rural areas.

He also urged the government to increase the existing Tk 3 lakh compensation for a deceased migrant worker's family to Tk 10 lakh and start a process to distribute national identity (NID) cards at the Bangladesh missions abroad.

"The celebration of International Migrants Day is an opportunity to highlight the contribution made by nearly 300 million migrant workers around the globe," said Abdusattor Esoev, chief of mission of International Organisation for Migration in Bangladesh.

Tuomo Poutiainen, country director of International Labour Organisation (ILO) Bangladesh, said the day is significant in the context of migrant rights, to honour them as part of the society, and acknowledge their contributions to sustainable development both in countries of origin and of destination.

Ahmed Munirur Saleheen, secretary of the expatriates' welfare ministry, said they have taken an initiative to modernise courses at the technical training centres and institutes of marine technology to send more skilled workers abroad.

Abul Basher, president of Bangladesh Association of International Recruiting Agencies; Shahidul Alam, director general of Bureau of Manpower, Employment and Training; and Hamidur Rahman, director general of Wage Earners' Welfare Board, also spoke at the discussion.

"However, the allocations for persons with disabilities are disbursed through a welfare-centric approach, not through a rights-based approach," he added.

Nasima Akter, president of National Council of Disabled Women, said, "Persons with disabilities have been severely affected by the Covid-19 pandemic. Many of them lost their income sources and many women with disabilities fell victim to torture and exploitation."

"Many organisations who used to work for persons with disabilities lost their funding and had to shut down as they did not receive any incentive from the government," she added.

Farjana Reza, national programme officer of social protection at International Labour Organization (ILO), said, "Support persons and caregivers play an extremely important role in the lives of persons with disabilities. Most of their efforts remain unnoticed and unrewarded, which also affect the quality of life of persons with disabilities."

"They [support persons and caregivers] should get a monthly allowance from the government to ensure the safety and smooth development of persons with disabilities," she added.

Nazrana Yesmin Hira, programme coordinator of Manusher Jonno Foundation, said, "Most of the educational institutions are not accessible for students with disabilities. School buildings and classrooms are not accessible. Teachers are not trained."

"The government must increase allocations to ensure inclusive education for students with disabilities," she added. Md Ashraf Ali Khan Khasru, state minister at the Ministry of Social Welfare, was the chief guest of the conference.

"Bangladesh's economy has gravely suffered due to the Russia-Ukraine War. Still, the government has increased disability allowance in the upcoming budget," said the minister.

"Not only the government but also people from all walks of life must come forward to ensure inclusive development of persons with disabilities,"

he added. Murteza Rafi Khan, chief executive officer, Bangladesh Business and Disability Network (BBDN); Amrita Rejina Rozario, country director, Sightsavers; Vashkar Bhattacharjee, national consultant accessibility, a2i; Jowaherul Islam Mamun, mentor, SWID Bangladesh; Ashrafun Nahar Misti, executive director, Women with Disabilities Development Foundation; Iftekhar Mahmud, coordinator, B-Scan; Nasrin Jahan, executive director, Disabled Child Foundation; Dilip Kumar Ghosh, president, National Forum of Organizations Working with The Disabled (NFOWD), were also present at the conference.
