

LOVE LIKE JAY GATSBY

"If personality is an unbroken series of successful gestures, then there was something gorgeous about him."

— F Scott Fitzgerald, *The Great Gatsby

The entire novel is brought alive by Jay Gatsby's extraordinary personality – a romantic hero who does not allow himself to fail. A personality that is so strong that it fights against all audacities in life to become 'someone of importance' to the love of his life.

He may be cunning, sometimes even ruthless, but Gatsby is capable of love, generosity, and kindness which, Tom Buchanan, Daisy's husband in the book, does not possess.

Maybe there is a lesson for every one of us to learn. Whatever goals we may have for the future, let our softer sides be aligned with them. We must always remember that everything we hope for is achievable in this world while being kind and generous. Cruelty is unnecessary!
