Wahidul, also an aviation expert and editor of the Weekly Monitor, said the current board of independent directors to revive the airline's operations as soon as possible while complying with the existing rules and regulations of the country.

Board of directors Prof M Sadiqul Islam, Prof Md Maksudur Rahman Sarker, Prof Md Badruzzaman Bhuiyan, Mohammed Shah Newaz, Syed Ershad Ahmed, and Managing Director ATM Nazrul Islam were present at the meeting.

On November 10, 2022, Prime Minister Sheikh to waive the huge amounts of surcharge the airline year due to the compound owes to the CAAB, creating a ray of hope for reviving the airlines.

The PM came up with this instruction while reiterated its commitment Prof Shibli Rubavat-Ul-Islam, chairman of the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC), called on her at the latter's office.

Contacted. United Airways MD ATM Nazrul Islam said the main obstacle behind reviving the airline is that CAAB would get huge amounts of money from the airline as surcharge while the principal amount is around Tk 60 crore.

The remaining Tk 292.81 crore was counted Hasina gave instructions to as a surcharge at an the respective authorities annual rate of $\overline{72}$ per cent. appointed as its chairman The debt is swelling every surcharge method. The BSEC said the airline cannot pay the debt as it currently has nothing but a few unusable aircraft.

Established in 2005, the company was listed on the Dhaka Stock Exchange in 2010. In February 2016, it ceased flight operations without any announcement amid mounting losses due to massive irregularities and corruption by its directors.

To revive the airline, the BSEC took a series of measures. Its board was restructured on February 2021, and eight independent directors were appointed on March 4 that
