NONE WOULD BE SPARED: MAYOR
When asked about the attack, CCC Mayor Rezaul Karim Chowdhury said no one involved in the incident will be exempted. "We have already taken legal action. Those involved are being identified by checking CCTV footage of the building."

Asked who carried out the attack, Rezaul said those who wanted to get work in an unfair manner did this. "Apart from taking legal action, if they are enlisted contractors of CCC, they will be blacklisted," he said.

Meanwhile, Engineers Institution Bangladesh (EIB) condemned the attack on Yazdani. In a statement signed by Md Shahadat Hossain Shibli, honorary general secretary of EIB-EIB yesterday demanded quick trial of the perpetrators.

This year, 901 units and 38 pavilions of 654 organisations have been allocated, he added.
KM Muzahidul Islam, member secretary of the fair-management committee, said, "Due to the ongoing construction of the metro station located on the road between Suhrawardy Udyan and Bangla Academy, the stall decoration and style of the fair have been changed."
The entry point of the Udyan, opposite to the Bangla Academy entrance, which was in place last year, will only be there as an exit point this year. Visitors can enter the venue through the main gate, located opposite to the TSC intersection of DU, and another gate in the middle.
He said Shishu Chattar will be in Suhrawardy Udyan. However, keeping in the children and parents in mind, Shishu Chattar is being kept near the entrance. Due to the pandemic, there was no Shishu Prohar at the beginning of the fair last year, but this time it will be present from the beginning.

He also said the book fair will be open from 3:00pm to 9:00pm every day from February 1 to February 28. It will run from 11:00am to 9:00pm on holidays. On February 21, the fair will start at 8:00am and will continue till 9:00pm.
He said that a seminar will be held on the main stage of the book fair at 4:00pm every day. There will be a cultural programme every evening throughout the month.

CPD has ulterior discussion titled "Progress on Increasing Export of Agricultural Goods", reads a press release.
Asked about the survey findings, Razzaque said, "People should know about their survey method. Their methods and objectivity are questionable... The CPD is not impartial." According to CPD, a large number of respondents faced corruption in paying taxes (48 percent), receiving licences (54 percent) and securing the connections for utilities like gas, electricity and water (49 percent), as well as for export-import (75 percent).

"Whenever they [Argentina] open an embassy here, they would also ask us to open an embassy there [Argentina]. We will do that, but for that we need money and other logistic support. So, we can't say right now when we will do that."
Asked whether the Argentinean embassy will open during Cafiero's visit, Momen said, "We are yet to get his itinerary. But before opening up an embassy, the country concerned needs some sorts of preparations."
"I have invited him. He [Argentine foreign minister] will come. I told him to bring Lionel Messi with him," Momen told reporters at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, reports UNB.
