The twin brothers also worked together on the TV series, "Moghol Family", together.

An interesting name that has slowly begun entering the industry is that of Masha Islam. Many have heard her magical voice when she made headlines for the title track of "Ladies and Gentlemen". Recently, she has also lent her voice to the track "Teka Pakhi" for the web project "Dui Diner Duniya".

The young singer has thousands of subscribers on YouTube, initially rising to popularity for covering songs in different languages. Masha will soon make her playback debut in the film "Noya Manush". Similarly, "Nasek Nasek" famed singer, Animes Roy won the hearts of millions for his extraordinary vocal style and relentless energy. Coke Studio Bangla gave the promising singer a platform to showcase his skills to the world. He too will be making his playback debut alongside Masha in the same film.

Another young starlet, Jannatul Ferdous Oishee captivated audiences with her beautiful smile and vivacious appearance. The "Mission Extreme" actress is also a beauty pageant champion, having been crowned Miss World Bangladesh in 2018. She represented Bangladesh at the Miss World competition in China, placing in the top 30 out of 118 contestants. She received widespread acclaim for her performance in the film, "Raat Jaga Phool". After the release of Black War, two of her films—"Adom" and "Noor"—are currently awaiting release.

Another popular face in showbiz is Samira Khan Mahi, a leading actress not just on the television, but also through social media—particularly YouTube and Facebook. Shafayet Mansoor Rana's directorial project "Black Box" is one of her most appreciated works.

Sadia Ayman rose to popularity through commercials, afterwards she received much appreciation for her back to back performances in Mizanur Rahman Aryan's "Phuler Namey Naam" and Shihab Shaheen's "Mayashalik".

Soon, the actress will be making her silver screen debut in Gias Uddin Selim's directorial venture "Kajol Rekha". She will also be featured in "Kabadi" and "Internsheep".

Daughter of actress Farida Chanda and fiction director Sotirto Rahman, Rodela Tapur made her silver screen debut in Ashutosh Sujan's debut-directorial film, "Deshantor". Her brilliant performance has already led to her fellow artistes expecting even more from the young star in the future.

In a short span of time, Nishat Nawar Salwa has worked in films like "Shopne Dekha Rajkonna" and "Biroto". She also worked in Kabori Sarwar's final directorial film, "Ei Tumi Shei Tumi", which has remained incomplete due to the director's demise. Currently, the actress is awaiting the release of her project, "Bubujan".

Gias Uddin Selim gave Shahnaz Sumi her big break through "Paap Punyo". With her acting prowess and gorgeous look, she has managed to win hearts after appearing in Raihan Rafi's "Damal". Soon, she will appear in Hoichoi's "Baker Moddhe Agun", directed by Taneem Rahman Angshu.

Since the release of "Mission Extreme"—the sequel to "Black War"—newcomer Sadia Nabila has been gaining a fan following. The actress portrays Ira, the police officer in the film. The newcomer made her debut on the silver screen with the Bollywood film, "Pareshaan Parinda". Sadia Nabila, who is an Australian expat, was the first runner up in a beauty pageant show.

Currently, she is actively working in Dhallywood and is looking forward to working on quality projects.

Theatre in Bangladesh has been an important medium for the artistes. These troupes have been producing a lot of young talent. AKM Itmam, Tanzikum Shahin Saidur and Nahida Akher Akhi are some of the hot prospects who have been excelling in the art form.

In the realm of television anchors, Srabonno Tawhida, Mousumi Mou and Neel Hurerjahan are promising up and comers, who are also pursuing a career in the field of acting. Srabonno has appeared in multiple tele-fictions, while Mousumi Mou has featured in both tele-fiction and OTT projects such as "Boli".
