"You know, I never got a chance to wear them. I was keeping them stored away to wear on some special occasion. I was just happy knowing I had new clothes to wear and it was my little gift to myself," says Joba.

The fire not only destroyed homes, but also took with it the little possessions the families had managed to collect.

Joba Rani has two sons, one of whom works as a day-labourer.

SÁLARY FOR HUSBAND'S TREATMENT DESTROYED Shahida Begum lived in one of the tin-sheds in the slums for a rent of Tk
