We never forget our friends

"They (Japanese) faced great challenges, but did not fall back. Their act of selflessness rekindled our spirit in the face of threats. Most unforgettable was the charitable gesture of Japanese school children who saved and donated their Tiffin money to help our people," she recalled.

"Your voice added strength to our voice and was magnified to the global community. You rallied with our cause and together raised a human citadel against a ruthless force. In the land of the rising sun, we see the image of a nation with dignity and humanity," she said.

"We never forget our friends," she added.

Hasina said for her it was an honor to carry on her father's legacy and visit Japan in 1997, 2010, 2014, 2016 and 2019 to further strengthen the relations.
