'JMB' man held in M'singh

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

Rab claimed to have arrested a JMB man in Bhaluka upazila of Mymensingh on Monday.

The arrestee -- Azizul Haque Golap, 38, -- was a charge-sheeted accused in the series bomb blasts in 2005, said Muhibul Islam Khan, commanding officer of Rab-14. He said Azizul used to organise secret meetings with JMB high-ups. Concealing his identity, Azizul had been working as a senior general manager at a fashion house in Dhaka.

Azizul was produced before a Mymensingh court that sent him to jail yesterday.

Sohan sneaked into Syria and was escorted by IS fighters to Raqqa. He returned home after staying there for five months.

Police later changed the case statement, which did not mention any IS connection between the arrestees. In reality, Beg and Sakib were working for the IS-inspired militant outfit Neo JMB.

During their stay in prison, Sakib met with Shamim Mahfuz, the mastermind and key leader behind the formation of the new militant outfit CTTC Sharqiya, said investigators.

Prof Kamruzzaman Mojumder, the chairman of the Department of Environmental Sciences at Stamford University, warned of the huge impact of global warming on cities across the world. "If the authority partakes in activities that shrink a city's green coverage, the temperature will further go up, which will be too tough to cope with. Dhaka is susceptible to such conditions where life and nature will have to bear the brunt of the rising temperature following depletion of green space, he added.

Marina Nazneen, the zonal executive officer (zone-1) of DSCC, claimed that there was a risk of accidents, which is why the trees were felled.
