Postponed SSC exams to be held on May 27-28 STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The SSC examinations, which were scheduled for May 14 and 15, will be held on May 27 and 28, respectively.

Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Board issued a notification in this regard yesterday.

Education Minister Dipu Moni on Monday said the postponed SSC and equivalent examinations will be held after the theoretical examinations end on May 23.

Fakhrul also turned down Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's comment on the formation of the polls-time government with the current parliament members as BNP wants a non-party neutral caretaker government.

The BNP leader said they have been repeatedly saying that the next elections must be held under a caretaker government. "It's immaterial whether or not they (AL) form the election-time government. It doesn't matter to us. We want a non-party-neutral government. We don't want to see any partisan people there," he said.
