

Rab DG gets one year extension

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The government yesterday extended M Khurshid Hossain's tenure as director general of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) for one year, on a contract basis.

The appointment was made through a public administration ministry circular, signed by its deputy secretary Rafiqul Islam.

According to the circular, Khurshid's post-retirement leave and related benefits have been suspended as per Section 49 of the Public Service Act-2018 and he has been appointed as Rab chief for a period of one year from June 5 or the date of joining.

The chiefs of both Rab and police are now appointed on a contract basis.

On January 9, the government extended the tenure of Inspector General of Police Chowdhury Abdullah Al-Mamun for one and a half years under contract.

Muhammad Yunus Trust, "Yunus Family Trust" and "Yunus Centre" in the tax years 2011-2012 to 2013-2014.

The commissioner of taxes imposed a "gift tax" worth Tk 15.4 crore on the donated money.

Yunus filed appeals with the Tax Appellate Tribunal challenging the imposition of taxes. However, the tribunal upheld the tax commissioner's decision. Yunus filed three income tax reference applications with the HC against it.

'EXTENDING CURRENT GOVT TENURE' DU prof draws flak for comment

STAR REPORT

Dhaka University Prof AKM Jamal Uddin drew strong criticism from different quarters for his comment that the tenure of the current parliament and the government will be extended for five more years without holding any election.

Prof Jamal Uddin of the sociology department, at a human chain on Monday, said, "The parliament could not function properly for two years due to the pandemic. No government agencies could work properly at that time. That's why the tenure of the incumbent government should be extended by five more years or at least two years."

Dhaka University Teachers Association organised the event protesting the death threat to prime minister by a BNP leader of Rajshahi.

Jamal was elected teacher's representative at the DU senate from the blue panel last year. He is the director of Nazmul Karim Study Centre at DU. He is also the president and spokesperson of a faction of "Muktijuddho Mancha".

Amid huge criticism from across sections of people, DUTA, Awami League and BCL Leaders said even they do not support his remarks.

BM Mozammel Haque, an organising secretary of AL, said, "We think his speech does not match our constitution."

DU Vice Chancellor Prof Md Akhtaruzzaman said, "His philosophy can be different. But I think only an election makes a democratic government."

DUTA President Prof Nizamul Hoque Bhuiyan said, "We do not support his speech. We support a democratic election under Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's government."

Contacted, Jamal said, "Pro-BNP and jamaat members are showing reaction against my speech, along with anti-government people."

Convener of the white panel -- a pro-BNP teachers association of Dhaka University -- Prof Lutfor Rahman said he should be brought to book for making such comments.

"He expressed his personal opinion. We have no connection in this regard," said Sheikh Wali Asif Enan, general secretary of BCL.

A tale of neglect

Corruption Commission, investigated the incident and found negligence and irregularities in the bridge construction works.

Later on November 20 last year, through a notification signed by a deputy secretary of Municipal-1 Section of Local Government, Rural Development and Cooperative Ministry, three engineers, including the executive engineer of Tangail municipality, were temporarily suspended on the charges of negligence in duty in the bridge construction works.

A departmental case was also filed against them. They have been asked to inform the local government department in writing within 10 working days of receiving the complaint.

At the same time, the mayor of Tangail municipality has been given a show cause notice for not taking legal action, despite knowing that there are irregularities in the bridge's construction.

Besides, the bridge construction company "Bricks and Building Limited" and "The Construction (JV)" were blacklisted for not following proper design and estimation in the construction of the bridge.

The suspension notice also stated that the contractor used logs (bolli) and bamboo poles without following the designs during centring and shuttering before casting the under-construction bridge.

Mohammad Siddique's death anniversary

STAR REPORT

Today is the 38th death anniversary of Moulvi Mohammad Siddique, a former teacher of a government high school at Daulatkhan in Bhola.

On this day in 1985, he passed away during the month of Ramadan while performing itikaf at Daulatkhan Jame Masjid.

A doa mahfil will be organised at his third son Md Ruhul Kabir's residence at Khilgaon in Dhaka on May 26.

Siddique played a vital role in his locality during the 1971 Liberation War. He is survived by his wife, five sons and two daughters. Md Yousuf Mamun, general manager for marketing and sales at Jamuna Television, is the youngest son of the late freedom fighter.

Khorshed Hossain, a resident of Baradoma area, said, "The bridge collapsed due to the negligence of the municipal engineers and contractors and we [locals] have to suffer for it."

Another local, Hafizur Rahman, stated, "The previous Bailey bridge was also damaged twice, and we'll have to suffer for several years. Due to the sluggish pace at which this bridge is being rebuilt, the suffering persists."

Asked about the matter, Hafizur Rahman Swapan, panel mayor of Tangail Municipality, said the same contractors are reconstructing the bridge and the design of the new bridge was approved recently.

"The bridge reconstruction works will be completed as soon as possible," he added.

India hands over 20 locomotives

OUR CORRESPONDENT, New Delhi

Twenty broad gauge locomotives were virtually handed over to Bangladesh in a ceremony held yesterday at the Rail Bhavan in New Delhi.

Minister Nurul Islam Sujan and his Indian counterpart Ashwini Vaishnav joined the event virtually. "We hope that existing collaboration between two countries regarding railways sector will increase day by day," Sujan said while addressing the event.

Closure or further

AL leaders are closely observing the meeting, holding hope for a resolution. However, some senior leaders remain sceptical about the possibility of a compromise due to past infighting and ongoing legal cases.

Scheduled for 3:00pm at the Gournadi municipality premises, the meeting will be attended by all members of the Barishal city unit AL, as well as presidents and secretaries of various AL units.

PARTNERS AT HOME AND ON THE FIELDS

In preparation for the upcoming electoral campaign, the wives of the two mayoral candidates have taken an active role in engaging with voters.

Luna Abdullah, wife of Abul Khair Abdullah, and Ismat Ara Tuku, wife of Jatiya Party candidate Iqbal Hossain Tapos, have been participating in socio-cultural gatherings and going door-to-door to secure support and votes.

Luna recently visited Barishal Government Women's College -- from where she completed her graduation -- interacting with students and assuring them that if her husband is elected, they will collaborate to address the challenges faced by women.

Ismat Ara Tuku mentioned her continuous visits to various places throughout the day and expressed gratitude for the overwhelming support they have received from voters, despite concerns about casting votes on election day.

In contrast, the wives of the other two mayoral candidates, Mufti Syed Md Faizul Karim of Islami Andolan and Md Kamrul Hasan Rupan, an independent candidate, have been notably absent from the electoral field.

4 more cases filed against BNP leader

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

Four more cases have been filed against BNP's Rajshahi district unit Convener Abu Sayeed Chand for issuing a "death threat" to Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina during a public rally in Rajshahi.

With these, at least six cases have been filed against Chand in six districts.

Of the four fresh cases, one was filed in Rajshahi under the Anti-Terrorism Act and Explosives act on Monday night. Another was filed in Faridpur under Digital Security Act.

The two other cases were filed in Jamalpur and Natore.

Promote gender

Professor Kamaluddin Kabir, chairman of JnU's drama department, said, "In this post-colonial era, we continue to adhere to British customs and ideals. However, to identify and address the underlying causes of gender disparity, it is crucial to delve deep into our culture."

Though the overall status of women has improved, equality is still a myth, claimed speakers. They also emphasised the significance of awareness campaigns at the grassroots.

Shamima Akhter, associate professor at the university's public administration department, said "Gender equality is essential for both men and women. We need to alter our mindset to achieve it. Finding and fixing the legal loopholes should be our priority."

Media can catalyse this change by highlighting advancements alongside addressing spots that need to be improved, said speakers.

Barnana Bhowmick from JnU's mass communication and journalism department and Asma Bint-e-Iqbal, chairman of the university's public administration department, also spoke at the event.

Now party unity

strong enough to give him a tight contest. "No candidate should be taken lightly," he said.

However, with no strong candidate to compete with Anwaruzzaman, concerns have been raised that the polls might see a low turnout of voters.

Almost all recent polls since 2020 are marred with low turnout, which experts blame on the growing public apathy towards democratic institutions.

In 2020, the voter turnout at the Dhaka South City Corporation polls was 29 percent, while the Dhaka North City polls saw a turnout of 25.32 percent.

In Sylhet-2 by-polls of September 4, 2021, where the AL-backed candidate defeated JP and BNP-rebel candidates, the voter turnout was 34.46 percent. The by-polls of Brahmanbaria-2, Bogura-4 and -6, and Chapainawabganj-2 and -3 also saw a similarly low turnout of voters.

However, Anwaruzzaman is confident that people will show up to vote.

"We have formed ward-level committees for publicity, who are working to encourage voters to cast their votes. Regardless of that, I don't think the polls will see a low turnout," he said.

Meanwhile, another challenge awaits Anwaruzzaman.

In the 2018 SCC polls, BNP candidate Ariful's win over AL candidate Badar Uddin Ahmed Kamran was blamed on the betrayal of several AL leaders. Many mayoral nomination seekers within AL allegedly worked in favour of Ariful.

For the upcoming polls, at least eight prominent AL leaders were in the race for nomination while Anwaruzzaman, joint secretary of the UK unit of Awami League, was selected by the party. According to AL leaders and activists, keeping the party united might pose a challenge for Anwaruzzaman.

However, all mayoral nomination aspirants within the party have officially declared their unyielding support for Anwaruzzaman and are seen working with him to secure a win for the party.

"Awami League is a big political party and that is why there are many nomination aspirants. But I have seen their unconditional support in my campaign," he told this correspondent.

Meanwhile, Anwaruzzaman reportedly violated the instructions of the returning officer while submitting his nomination papers yesterday.

The instruction was not to bring more than five people while submitting the nomination paper to the returning officer's office. However, the AL candidate was accompanied by around a hundred people to the regional election office.

However, Anwaruzzaman denied the allegations.

"Hundreds were indeed present but I was only accompanied by five party members. The others were not with me," he said.
