voters to file appeals against the EC's decision. The gazette notification has now been issued following the finalisation of the boundary demarcation after addressing objections.

Ahead of the 11th parliamentary polls in December 2018, the then KM Nurul Huda lead commission brought changes to boundaries of 25 constituencies.

In 2013, ahead of the 10th parliamentary elections, the commission headed by Kazi Rakibuddin Ahmad drew the boundaries of 87 constituencies.

The ATM Shamsul Huda-led commission brought massive changes to 133 constituencies ahead of the ninth parliamentary polls in 2008.

Liton makes similar pledges

Liton started prioritising employment in his election manifesto in 2013, and the issue topped his priorities during the 2018 RCC polls.

He had then promised that he would achieve the goal by providing natural gas connections to industries and building a high-tech park, among other proposed initiatives.

However, natural gas connections reached Rajshahi in 2012 and residents have been struggling to get the connection for both household and industrial purposes. Meanwhile, the Bangabandhu Hi-tech Park was set up in 2016 and it is yet to create the promised 14,000 jobs.

When asked by journalists about the absence of civic issues -- such as increasing traffic jams, lack of proper bus stands and market spaces -- in his manifesto, Liton said, "No issue will be left unaddressed once I'm re-elected."

Earlier in February, the commission published a draft of the redrawn constituencies, allowing Mutakabbir Ahmed, executive officer of DNCC zone 5, said, "I'm not aware of the current state of the cycle lanes. I did not know that garbage is obstructing the smooth movement of the cyclists."

"Arrangements will be made soon to remove the illegal shops and illegally parked vehicles from these lanes," he added.

Maruf Hossain, town manager at UNDP, emphasised the need to reduce the reliance on plastic products and enforce rules where polythene is extensively used.

Prof Adil Mohammad Khan of Jahangirnagar University highlighted the urgency of implementing the government's instructions on single-use plastic.

He said numerous countries have successfully banned such plastics and effective measures must be taken in Bangladesh as well.

Regarding the closure of polythene factories, Adil clarified that the government does not have a direct role in shutting down plastic production facilities. However, he acknowledged the benefits of halting plastic production.

Shamim Ahmed, president of the Bangladesh Plastic Goods Manufacturers and Exporters Association (BPGMEA), stated, "There is a need for more stringent waste disposal practices and I encourage researchers to investigate polythene alternatives."

Speaking as the chief guest, Syeda Rizwana Hassan, chief executive of Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers Association (Bela), highlighted the easy availability of plastic products and stressed the importance of collective efforts to abandon them.

She suggested that although a complete ban on all plastic products may be challenging, eliminating single-use plastic within a year is entirely feasible for the government.

Change Initiative's advisor Ibul Syed Rana presided over the programme, while around a dozen of rights activist and researchers spoke at the discussion.

Recently, Goni was arrested by Jamlapur police after a case was filed against them, leading to an end of the company's operations.

Following the arrest of Mostafizur Rahman, Md Mungul, and Mashir

Rahman, the DB police have unearthed the involvement of several other individuals in these fraudulent activities. Drives are underway to apprehend the remaining absconding members of the gang.

LGRD Minister Tazul Islam, chief guest at the event, acknowledged the positive and negative impacts of development projects. He called for collective efforts to mitigate the negative effects and suggested imposing limits on the number of people living in Dhaka to protect the city's green lands and wetlands.

The discussion was chaired by BIP president Mohammad Fazle Reza Sumon. BIP general secretary Sheikh Muhammad Mehdi Ahsan presented the report.

CYCLONE MOCHA Bangladesh sends relief for Rakhine victims

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh yesterday sent 120 tonnes of relief materials for the people in Rakhine affected by the cyclone Mocha, while pledging voluntary contribution of $50,000 for the Palestinian refugees for this year.

Myanmar's junta has given a death toll of 148 people, mostly from the persecuted Rohingya minority in western Rakhine state that has been heavily affected by the cyclone on May 14.

Meanwhile, Bangladesh pledged voluntary contribution of $50,000 to the "United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA)" at the pledging conference at the UN headquarters on Friday.
