receive treatment there at a time,” she said. The PM said this while virtually addressing the celebration ceremony of the 78th Dhaka Medical College Day from her office. The Dhaka Medical College Alumni Trust arranged the function at the Shaheed Dr Shamsul Alam Khan Auditorium of the college. Hasina put emphasis on the immediate implementation of the new plan. “If this plan for the hospital can be started soon, it will set an example in healthcare services,” she said. The PM asked the physicians and medical experts to pay attention to medical science research, as the number of such studies is still low in Bangladesh. MUJIBPEDIA LAUNCHED The PM also unveiled the cover of the “Mujibpedia”, an encyclopedia on Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman yesterday. The launching ceremony was held at the Prime Minister's Office. It contains accurate information about Bangabandhu's political and working life and the chronology of his long struggle. The PM revised and edited the entries related to Bangabandhu's family that has been included in Mujibpedia. The book has been published by History and Culture Circle Bangladesh Limited with Agami Prakashani as the distributor. It contains 591 entries and about 750 historical photographs. Some 97 writers, researchers, historians and journalists have contributed to the book.

SC asks HC to dispose

Division of the SC also extended for two months its chamber judge's directive that stayed the HC order of status quo on the Labour Appellate Tribunal's verdict in the case. A four-member bench of the Appellate Division headed by Chief Justice Hasan Foez Siddique passed the order following a leave to appeal petition filed by the retired workers of Grameen Kalyan challenging the HC order.

Barrister Abdullah Al Mamun, a lawyer for Grameen Kalyan, told The Daily Star that the HC will now settle after hearing of the rule whether his client will have to give a part of its net profit to its retired workers. Meanwhile, the retired workers' lawyer Khurshid Alam Khan said there is no legal bar for Grameen Kalyan to give the part of its profit to his clients following the SC order.

deputy secretary of the LGRD ministry, said the current office of the department does not have significant tasks as the workers are employed in the city corporations. “The government will devise practical plans based on the situation, and we are considering establishing a research centre under this department.” When questioned about the vacant posts, he said, “As mentioned earlier, our plan is to transform the department into a research centre. Once this plan is implemented, we will revise the organogram and recruit new employees accordingly.” Entomologist Professor Kabirul Bashir of Jahangirnagar University told The Daily Star, “There is much discussion regarding this office. The government should utilise it for mosquito control. Research on mosquito control is highly essential as the types of mosquitoes and their resistance to insecticides change over time.”

He advocated for targeted interventions among the teenage population. Prof Mohammad Bellal Hossain of the Department of Population Sciences at Dhaka University highlighted the significance of prioritising gender equity in education rather than solely focusing on contraceptive use. Prof Dr Ferdousi Begum, former president of the Obstetrical and Gynaecologists Society of Bangladesh, stressed the need for enhanced training for midwives regarding contraceptive methods. Dr Abu Sayed Mohammad Hasan, programme specialist at UNFPA Bangladesh, expressed concern regarding the growing issue of unwanted pregnancies and unsafe abortions. Dr Shafiqul Islam, health & population advisor at the British High Commission in Dhaka, suggested the establishment of a social media cell to effectively disseminate family planning messages to a wider audience. Dr Nurun Nahar Begum, line director at the DGFP, acknowledged that the discussed issues have already been incorporated into various plans and programmes. She emphasised the need for a systematic approach to address them effectively.

The Daily Star. The HC bench of Justice Md Nazrul Islam Talukder and Justice Khizir Hayat Lizu issued the rule following a petition filed by the ACC. Lawyer Khurshid Alam Khan told The Daily Star that the maximum punishments for amassing illegal wealth and money laundering are imprisonments for 10 years and 12 years respectively. The trial court has sentenced Salim Prodhon to four years' imprisonment for amassing illegal wealth and another four years' imprisonment for money laundering. It said the two punishments will run simultaneously, which is not correct under the relevant laws. 60 names there.” Eight Titas employees were sacked due to their involvement in such activities, said Haronur Rashid Mullah, adding that 228 employees had faced different kinds of punishment. “We have zero tolerance about our employees, and recently we have transferred 91 staff members,” he added.

to provide much needed treatment to the villagers, she added. Contacted, Chairman of Jalsukha Union Parishad Faiz Ahmed Khelu said a concrete road connecting the village to the clinic will be constructed in the next dry season. Upazila Health and Family Planning Officer Dr Iqbal Hossain said although the construction of a road connecting the village with the clinic was initiated, it faced obstacles due to the opposition of certain local individuals. He said creating a supportive environment for the clinic's service users through the construction of a road is only possible if the local public representatives demonstrate sincerity and commitment to resolving this issue.
