In the capital, BNP also held a rally before the procession. Speaking at the rally, senior party leaders voiced their criticism against the current government. especially regarding the attack during the two-day road march. BNP senior secretary general Ruhul Kabir Rizvi said Sajeeb's BARKATULLAH BULU BNP vice chairman murder was pre-planned.

Dhaka North City BNP convener Amanullah Aman said, "The main motive behind this murder was to halt the movement against the current government."

BNP vice chairman Barkatullah Bulu said, "The movement for demanding elections under a non-partisan government has been ongoing since August 24 last year. So far, 19 of our leaders have lost their lives in this movement. Around 20,000 leaders and activists went to iail. New cases have been filed against 8,000 of our leaders and activists in the last two days. So far, cases have been filed against 40 lakh BNP men."

To expedite the trials in these cases, a special branch has been established in the home and law ministries, he

A large number of law enforcement personnel was deployed in the area during the rally.

'He was buried alive' Decomposed body of man recovered after a year

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

Police vesterday recovered a decomposed body from Lalmonirhat's Aditmari upazila. The deceased, identified as Alamgir Hossain, 45, of the district's Kaliganj upazila, had gone missing about a year ago, said family members.

Earlier, police arrested three men after Saddam Hossain, the victim's brother, filed a case accusing seven of kidnapping Alamgir.

The body was recovered based on information revealed by them during primary investigation, said police.

According to the arrestees, Alamgir was drugged and buried alive in a bamboo cluster in Aditmari. They were hired by his step brothers.

The arrestees are Rashedul Islam alias Aziz Driver, 30, of Gazipur; Manarul Islam, 35, of Rangpur; and Sekender Ali, 55, of Aditmari.

They confessed to the crime during primary interrogation, said Imtiaz Kabir, officer-in-charge of Kaliganj Police Station.

Alamgir had gone missing on the eve of August 13, 2022, after he went to meet Rashedul in Paschim Ramdev village. A missing diary was filed in this regard, said OC Mozammel Haque of Aditmari Police Station.

"Drives are underway to arrest other accused," Shaiful Islam, Lalmonirhat police superintendent, told The Daily Star.
