The ambassador also said the embassy is working to stop "visa trading" to reduce migration cost and stressed on sending more skilled workers to Saudi Arabia to increase remittance.

"Remittance flow will increase if skilled workers are sent," he added.

Remittance sent by Bangladeshi migrant workers is considered to be one of the key pillars of the country's economic progress.

In last fiscal year, Bangladesh received $21.6 billion in inward remittance compared to $21.03 billion received in the previous fiscal.

In the outgoing fiscal, Saudi Arabia generated highest 17.42 percent of Bangladesh's total inward remittance, followed by USA (16.29 percent), the UAE (14.03 percent), UK (9.62 percent), and Kuwait (7.19 percent).
