The Department of Corrections is a state agency that administers the state's correctional system. It is responsible for the custody, control, and rehabilitation of inmates, as well as the supervision of parolees. The department is headed by the Commissioner of Corrections, who is appointed by the Governor. The department's budget is approximately $1.5 billion, and it employs over 10,000 staff members. The department's main facilities are the State Prison and the State House of Correction. The department also operates several smaller facilities, including the State House of Correction for Women and the State House of Correction for the Deaf and Blind.

Abstract

European Union (EU) and North America and other important non-industrial nations follow a common knowledge concerning that "all-else-equal" important institutions are policies that are in more advanced stages toward financial and services liberalization. These nations share almost completely all of the important quantitative and expert financial and services liberalization
