Parents, students protest
harassment of schoolgirl

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Benapole

Around 500-600 students and parents yesterday demonstrated against the sexual harassment of a fifth grader of a primary school in Sharsha upazila of Jashore.

They demanded exemplary punishment of accused Saiful Islam Sumon, a staff of Saratala Government Primary School. They also demanded safety of the schoolgirls.

The protestors first formed a human chain in front of the school in Sarantala Bazar around 3:20pm. Later, they brought out a procession from Sarantala Bazar and marched towards the school premises.

Talking to the reporters, the parents claimed that Sumon has been harassing schoolgirls for a long time, but the school authorities did not take any steps against him.

ASM Akiqul Islam, officer-in-charge of Sharsha Police Station, said police arrested Sumon after the mother of the student filed a case against him around 5:00pm.

Sumon allegedly harassed the girl sexually at the school around 10:00am yesterday, said the OC.
