

Dress casual for Fall:

A TAAGA MAN style guide

As the autumn breeze begins to kiss the crowded streets of Dhaka and cities alike, it is time to step up your style game. Forget the sweltering heat of summer; fall is when you can layer up without sweating through your ensemble. Gentlemen, if you have been yearning to don those flannel shirts and ribbed polos you have been eyeing all summer, here is your go-to guide for men's fall fashion.

Say goodbye to your lightweight summer tees; flannel shirts are taking centre stage this fall. These warm, soft fabrics are perfect for milder autumn temperatures. Go for plaid if you want to make a statement or stick with solid colours for a more subtle look. Pair it with denim and ankle boots and you are all set for that casual meetup at Dhanmondi Lake or an evening walk around Gulshan. The flannel shirt is as cosy as it is versatile. You may dress it up for working hours or down for a relaxed weekend.

Let's talk about the band collar, shall we? This unique neckline adds an instant modern twist to the traditional collared shirt. It is the perfect pick for those who want to make a subtle yet striking style statement. Opting for cotton will make sure you are not entirely at odds with the occasional bouts of humidity. Pair these shirts with chinos for an effortlessly smart look that will get heads turning whether you are at work or dining out at an upscale restaurant.

If you like the feel of a T-shirt but want something a little more "put together", the ribbed polo is your best friend. These add a touch to your attire, elevating it above mediocrity. Perfect for casual Fridays or a night out with friends, the ribbed polo offers comfort and flair. Pair it with tapered jeans and loafers for an outfit that boasts both style and ease.

The cotton kurta — no man's wardrobe is complete without this timeless piece. Comfortable and stylish, cotton kurtas can give a traditional touch to your fall fashion. Choose earthy tones like olive, beige, or mustard to really embrace the autumn vibes. Ideal for family gatherings or traditional events, you can also give it a modern spin by teaming it up with slim-fit trousers and closed-toe sandals.

Some days are cooler than others. For those in-between temperatures, the half-sleeved shirt is your best friend. It provides the right amount of coverage without making you feel suffocated. Opt for lightweight materials and pastel colours to make the transition from summer to fall as seamless as possible.

So, there you have it! The city may be busy, but that doesn't mean your style has to suffer. Don't just blend in this autumn; instead, stand out with your own easy-going style. It's not just about looking good; it's also about feeling good. Happy fall, y'all!
