Farmgate footbridge reopens

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Farmgate footbridge was reopened yesterday after a year and a half of renovation works.

Home Minister Asaduzzaman Khan inaugurated the footbridge along with DNCC Mayor Atiqul Islam.

Designed in line with the architecture of National Parliament Building, the bridge will provide a convenient and clean pathway for pedestrians, they said.

According to DNCC sources, Bangladesh Bridge Authority provided funding for this project.

A total of three stairs are available and there is a plan to include escalators and lifts in both parts of the bridge. It will also include a bus bay and car drop service.

After inauguration, Asaduzzaman Khan said, "Our police force is working to control traffic. They stand for hours. Today [yesterday] we also inaugurated a police box with a bathroom facility for them."

Responding to query on Anwar park in Farmgate, he said, "We heard there will be a supermarket in the park. There are lots of markets in the area. So, we won't allow a market in this park. We will make the park green again."

Inspector General of Police Choudhury Abdullah Al Mamun, Dhaka Metropolitan Police Commissioner Habibur Rahman and Selim Reza, chief executive officer of DNCC, were also present.

Swechchhasebak League activist hacked to death

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A Swechchhasebak League activist was hacked to death allegedly by his rivals in the capital's Darussalam area on Saturday night.

The deceased is Shah Alam, 32, said Assistant Sub-Inspector Abdul Gafur of Darussalam police.

Alam was declared dead by doctors around midnight after being taken to DMCH.

ASI Gafur said there were clashes between two rival groups of Swechchhasebak League on Saturday night, and police detained two people over the incident. They are being interrogated on suspicion of involvement in the murder, he added.

Shah Alam's friend Md Hridoy said Alam was returning home from work. On the way, members of a rival group attacked him with sharp weapons.

His father Syed Ali filed a murder case with Darussalam Police Station, accusing 14 named and five to six unnamed people.

Air traffic to triple in 15 years
State minister for aviation tells ICAO conference

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Air traffic in Bangladesh will increase significantly in the next 15 years, State Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism M Mahub Ali said yesterday.

"In the last 10 years, the country's aviation market has almost doubled in terms of passenger and cargo transport. It will increase by three tiers in the next 15 years," he said while addressing the 58th Conference of Director General of Civil Aviation of International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) Asia and Pacific Region.

The five-day event was inaugurated at a city hotel yesterday.

Around 500 foreign delegates, representing 47 countries and 13 international organisations, are participating in the event, presided over by Air Vice Marshal M Mafidur Rahman, chairman of Civil Aviation Authority of Bangladesh.

To improve technical and public efficiency and ensure safe and smooth air navigation, various development projects have already been completed across all airports countrywide, including the construction and inauguration of the third terminal of Dhaka airport, the state minister mentioned.
