

Embracing elegance:

TAAGA's fall collection guide for divas and fashionistas

Fall in Bangladeshi metropolitan cities is not just a season; it's a mood. It's the prelude to festive times and cooler days, making it the perfect period for women to shuffle their wardrobes and introduce some vibrant, cosy, and contemporary pieces. With Durga Puja approaching and a futuristic twist to the fashion landscape, here's how to remain ahead of the fashion game this fall.

Remember when tie-dye was a thing of the past? Well, it's back and taking Dhaka and cities alike by storm! Comfy tie-dye tunics, with their kaleidoscope of colours, are urban-chic vibe, long jackets paired with TAAGA's fashion pants are the way to go. These silhouettes are flattering and fashionable, providing just the right amount for any city's mild fall.

For daring divas, crop tops paired with high-waisted pants are the go-to this season. Not only do they offer a chic, modern vibe, but they also serve as the perfect canvas for accessories. Hoop earrings or even layered bracelets with TAAGA's show-stopper fashion pants with striking prints can the epitome of casual chic. These tunics can be worn with stylish slim-fit jeans or without them! Imagine yourself donning the tunic with just boots. Whether you're out for a stroll on Patenga Beach in Chattogram or meeting friends for coffee in Uttara. The best thing, though? They convey a fun, young spirit that is ideal for any event.

Red long tops or black dresses are not just traditional; they are versatile. Cotton long tops, with their breathability and elegance, offer the ideal blend of comfort and style for Dhaka's fall. From solid colours to intricate patterns. To give it a more modern touch, opt for asymmetrical cuts or collared necklines. Perfect for a Puja pandal visit or a family gathering.

As the temperatures mellow down, layers become your best fashion friends. A stylish long jacket over a basic tee or tank top can effortlessly elevate your look. If you're looking to embrace a more make you feel like a rockstar. It's modern, it's bold, and it's just what you need to make a statement with this Durga Puja.

Accessories can make or break an outfit. This fall, think of tassel earrings, boho neck-pieces, and statement rings. If you're wearing a vibrant tie-dye long top or a printed dress, go for more minimalistic accessories. For solid-coloured outfits, don't shy away from vibrant, statement-making accessories. Remember, fall is all about celebrating colours, so let your accessory choices reflect that.

By K Tanzeel Zaman
Photo: TAAGA

