NEXT COURSE OF MOVEMENT BNP looks for options other than blockade

MOHAMMAD AL-MASUM MOLLA

Despite the arrests of its top leaders, the BNP is determined to continue its movement until the demand for election under a non-partisan interim government is met, say several party leaders.

The party, however, plans to bring changes to its strategy because a tough programme like blockade may lose effectiveness if enforced for a long time. Besides, the BNP also risks losing "public sympathy", which it earned over the years, for such programmes that inflict sufferings on people, according to them.

The party leaders said they are now planning to announce some fresh programmes.

"There will be a variation in the programmes. They may include siege to establishments and hartal," said a senior leader, wishing not to be named.

The BNP is likely to refrain from any protests or demonstrations on November 7 which it observes as the national revolution and solidarity day.

Following its October 28 rally, the BNP observed a nationwide dawn-to-dusk hartal and enforced a three-day blockade. It is also going to enforce a two-day blockade from tomorrow.

Afghans dispatch Dutch to boost semis bid

AFP, Lucknow

Afghanistan swept past the Netherlands by seven wickets on Friday to boost their chances of reaching the World Cup semifinals.

Chasing 180 to win, Afghanistan reached their target with 111 balls to spare to clinch a fourth win at the tournament to add to victories over defending champions England, Sri Lanka and Pakistan.

They now have eight points, the same as Australia and New Zealand, who currently occupy two of the semifinal qualifying places.

Undefeated India have already made sure of a last-four spot with South Africa almost certain to join them.

Next up for Afghanistan on Tuesday is a potential grudge match against five-time champions Australia.

Rahmat Shah hit his third successive half-century for Afghanistan while skipper Hashmatullah Shahidi made an undefeated 56, also his third fifty in a row.

Rahmat hit a 54-ball 52 with eight fours and shared a 74-run third wicket partnership with Hashmatullah
