OUR CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

The Forest Department has designated five water routes for devotees and visitors heading to Dublar Char in the Sundarbans to participate in the Rash Mela scheduled for November 25-27.

The routes are: Burigoalini-Kobadak rivers to Dublar Char via Batulanadi-Balnadi-Patkoshta-Hongshoraj, Koyra-Kashiabad-Khashitana-Bojbojavia Arua Shibs-Shibs river-Marjat, Naliyan Station to Dublar Char via Shibs-Marjat river, Dangmari-Chandpai station via Teenkona Dwip to Dublar Char, and Bogi-Baleswar-Supoti-Kachikhali station then to Dublar Char crossing Shelar Char.

They will have to pay an entry fee and no one will be allowed to move during night time, said Forest Department officials. Boats, launches and trawlers have to go to the festival area through the Forest Department checkpoints.

Farmers' faces radiate joy as they come across the dew droplets glistening over ripe paddy seeds ready for harvest. As the sun peeks through the horizon, they take to the earthen oven to parboil freshly winnowed seeds as they prepare for Nabanno. The photos were taken yesterday. PHOTO: HABIBUR RAHMAN

ARSON CASE

Garment workers' union leader Babul shown arrested

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A garment workers' union leader who went missing on Tuesday was shown arrested yesterday in a case filed last month over an act of arson.

Babul Hossain, Bangladesh Garment Workers Solidarity (BGWS) general secretary, went missing around 7:30pm on his way to Gazipur from Ashulia.

Since then, his mobile phone was found switched off, BGWS said in a statement.

"Detectives arrested and handed him over to us," Saiful Islam, sub-inspector of Gazipur's Bason Police Station, told The Daily Star yesterday.

The case was filed last month, over vandalism and torching vehicles, he added.

However, he did not mention any details of the case. Later, BGWS, in a press conference at its office in Dhaka, demanded his immediate release.

Taslima Akter of BGWS said Babul was not in Gazipur at the time the incident took place.

Meanwhile, a Gazipur court sent Babul to jail after police produced him before it with a five-day remand prayer.

However, the court asked the investigation officer to take him for interrogation on any day by November 22.
