

TUNNEL COLLAPSE

Indian army called in to rescue 41 men

AFP, Silkyara Tunnel

India's military brought in specialised equipment yesterday as efforts to free 41 trapped workers entered a third week, with digging ongoing in three directions after repeated setbacks to the operation.

The Indian air force said yesterday that they were “responding with alacrity”, as they flew in their third load since the partial collapse of the under construction Silkyara road tunnel on November 12 in the Himalayan state of Uttarakhand.

Rescue officials said they called for a superheated plasma cutter to be brought to the remote mountain location, after engineers driving a metal pipe horizontally through 57 metres (187 feet) of rock and concrete ran into metal girders and construction vehicles buried in the earth.

A giant earth-boring machine snapped just nine metres from breaking through.

The plasma cutter will be used to remove the broken giant earth-boring drill and metal blocking the horizontal route, before digging will continue by hand.

Thick metal girders in the rubble are blocking the route, and using conventional oxyacetylene cutters to clear them is tricky from inside the confined pipe, only wide enough for a man to crawl through.

The workers were seen alive for the first time on Tuesday, peering into the lens of an endoscopic camera sent by rescuers down a thin pipe through which air, food, water and electricity are being delivered.

Man gets death penalty for killing wife

BSS, Chandpur

A Chandpur court sentenced a man to death yesterday for killing his wife and mother-in-law in Faridganj upazila in 2020.

Additional District and Session Judge (2) Shahedul Karim handed down the verdict to Al Mamun Mohon, 32, a resident of Raiganj upazila in Lakshmpur.

According to the prosecution, in May 2020, Mamun stabbed his wife Tanjina Akter Ritu, 20, and his mother-in-law Farida Parveen, 45, to death over a domestic dispute in Faridganj upazila.

Following the incident, Ritu's uncle filed a case with Faridganj Police Station.

2 children drown in pond

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

Two children drowned in a pond yesterday afternoon in Tangail town's Kagmara Panditpara area.

The deceased are Wasena Akter, 5, daughter of Wahab Miah, and her cousin Rihan Miah, 4, son of Jahangir Hossain.

Local Ward Councillor Saiful Islam said, “In the morning, the children went out to play in the yard in front of their house. When no one was watching them, they accidentally fell into the pond next to the yard. By the time their family members realised they had gone missing, it was too late and they were later found floating in the pond.”

AL goes for a blend of old and new

The possible change in policy is aimed at making the polls festive and competitive, and improve turnout, said sources.

The AL supremo, while talking to party nomination seekers at the Gono Bhaban yesterday, hinted at fielding dummy candidates in the absence of opposition parties.

She even threatened punitive action against nominees who would win without any competition whatsoever, a meeting participant quoted Hasina as saying.

Hasina urged the nomination seekers, regardless of being nominated or not, to accept the AL's decision. She urged them to take initiatives to make the polls participatory and to encourage independents.

After Hasina's meeting with the nomination seekers, AL General Secretary Obaidul Quader unveiled the names of the nominees at the AL headquarters on Bangabandhu Avenue around 4:00pm.

Quader was flanked by party central leaders and a large number of nomination seekers at the press conference. Many nomination seekers and their followers were also waiting outside.

The crowd cheered, and chanted slogans when their favourite leaders' names were announced by Quader.

Three state ministers – Monnujan Sufian of labour and employment, KM Khalid of cultural affairs, and Zakir Hossen of primary education – did not get the party ticket.

Whip Shamsul Hoque Chowdhury was also denied nomination.

Former state minister for information and broadcasting Murad Hassan, who had to resign from the cabinet for his misogynistic remarks, and former minister Khandoker Mossaraf Hossain, who was dropped from all AL committees earlier, were left out.

Habibe Millat, an incumbent lawmaker from Sirajganj-2 and also the son-in-law of Khandoker Mossaraf Hossain, was also denied the party ticket.

Former ministers Muhiuddin Khan Alamgir, Abul Kalam Azad, former Bangladesh cricket team captain AM Naimur Rahman, former IGP Nur Mohammad, AL veteran Suranjit Sengupta's widow Jaya Sen Gupta, former FBCCI president Shafiul Islam, former Dhaka city AL (North) president AKM Rahmatullah, and former Swedchhasebak League general secretary Pankaj Debnath were among the lawmakers who did not get nominated.

The AL announced nominees for 298 constituencies. During the last election, it left out 60 for candidates of its allies.

Israeli strikes put Damascus airport out of service again

AFP, Beirut

Israeli air strikes yesterday made Damascus airport inoperable just hours after flights had resumed following a similar attack last month, a war monitor said, as state media also reported the attack.

“Israeli warplanes on Sunday afternoon carried out a new raid targeting Damascus international airport... putting it out of service again,” said the Britain-based Syrian Observatory for Human Rights.

It said the raid targeted the runways, and reported the sound of an explosion from the direction of Nominees for the rest two constituencies, Narayanganj-5 and Kushia-2, would be announced in a day or two, Quader said.

Jatiya Party leader AKM Salim Osman and Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal President Hasanul Haq Inu are incumbents in the constituencies.

Over 50 fresh faces got AL nomination for the first time, including cricketer Shakib Al Hasan, actor Ferdous Ahmed, former additional deputy inspector general of police and investigation officer of Bangabandhu assassination case Abdul Kahar Akand, former chairman of Bangladesh Public Service Commission Muhammed Sadique, former vice-chancellor of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University Kamrul Hasan Khan, former principal secretary to the PM Abul Kalam Azad, and former Chhatra League president HM Badiuzzaman Sohag.

The nominees include 37 members of the AL Central Working Committee which has 81 members.

AL praesidium members Mofazzal Hossain Chowdhury Maya, Jahangir Kabir Nanak and Abdur Rahman, Joint General Secretary AFM Bahauddin Nasim, organising secretaries Ahmod Hossain, SM Kamal Hossain and Shafi Ul Chowdhury Nadel, International Affair Secretary Shammii Ahmed, Agriculture Affairs Secretary Faridunahar Laily, Science and Technology Affairs Secretary Abdus Sabur, Information and Research Affairs Secretary Selim Mahmud, central committee members Sanjida Khanom and Sayeed Khokon got party tickets.

Sons of four incumbent AL lawmakers were picked for the constituencies of their fathers.

They are Mohammad Solaiman Selim, son of city AL adviser Haji Selim, was picked for Dhaka-7; Mahbubur Rahman, son of party praesidium member Mosharraf Hossain, for Chattogram-1; Mazharul Islam, son of Dabirul Islam, for Thakurgaon-2; and Rashek Rahman, son of AL treasurer HN Ashiqur Rahman, for Rangpur-5.

Chayan Islam was chosen over his sister Merina Jahan for Sirajganj-6.

Out of the 298 nominees, 24 are women, up from 19 the last time; and 20 nominees are from minority communities, up from 16.

In Satkhira, three out of the four incumbents did not get the AL nomination. In Khulna, three out of six incumbents did not get the nomination. Four out of eight serving MPs were dropped in Tangail. Three of five lawmakers from Rajshahi were denied party tickets and seven of 18 MPs of Dhaka failed to get the party tickets.

There were no changes in 16 districts.

a military airport elsewhere in the capital.

A military source said in a statement carried by state news agency SANA that at around 4:50 pm (1350 GMT), “the Zionist enemy carried out an air attack with missiles from the direction of the occupied Syrian Golan”.
