Uniform entry test not from
next year: UGC

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The UGC yesterday announced that it will not be able to hold uniform admission test from the upcoming 2023-24 academic year “due to unavoidable reasons”. UGC acting chairman Prof Muhammed Alamgir said the cluster admission system will continue for now. He also urged the institutions that are outside the cluster system, including Dhaka University and Buet, to participate in the cluster system. The UGC on October 26 finalised the draft of Central Admission Test Authority Ordinance for implementing a single admission test system. Currently, there are three cluster admission tests – the GST (general, science, and technology) consisting 22 universities; agriculture (eight universities), and another one with Ruet, Cuet and Kuet. Under this system, universities are grouped together to admit students based on their choices and merit.

JAMALPUR GENERAL HOSPITAL
ICU locked for 8 years

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Jamalpur

The intensive care unit at Jamalpur General Hospital has remained unused since its inauguration, depriving heart patients of required treatment for years. The ICU, inaugurated on January 31, 2015, has been non-functional for eight years due to a shortage of trained manpower and inadequate testing facilities. The unit now remains locked. As a consequence, patients with severe heart problems are redirected to Mymensingh Medical College Hospital or any hospital in Dhaka. Solaiman Kabir from Sarishabari upazila told The Daily Star that his father, experiencing severe heart pain in 2019, was rushed to Jamalpur General Hospital. However, the on-duty doctor referred him to Mymensingh Medical College Hospital, and he passed away on the way there. Had he received treatment at the hospital, he might have survived, Kabir added. Recently, officers from the National Electro-Medical Equipment Maintenance Workshop & Training Center visited the hospital. They declared one of the two machines in the ICU completely unusable, while the other is repairable, according to hospital authorities. Lovely Akhter, the nurse in charge at the ICU, said, “I come here every morning and stay until half-past two. No patient has been treated here since its inauguration.” Jamalpur Civil Surgeon Dr Pronoy Kanti Das said, “The ICU’s function has yet to start due to a shortage of necessary manpower and medical equipment. Recently, it has been declared unusable.”

Dr Mahfuzur Rahman, assistant director of the hospital, alleged that the ICU machine was damaged due to the non-cooperation of the officials at the National Electro-Medical Equipment Workshop. He said they have sent several letters informing them about the issue, but to no avail.

Tuhin and researcher Maha Mirza jointly conducted the study where they also found three companies, who are building solar power plants in Pabna, Gaibandha and Lalmonirhat, are grabbing lands using muscle power and state influence in the name of land acquisition.

overnight train can conveniently store their belongings in lockers and explore the beach and other tourist spots during the day before catching a night train back to Chattogram or Dhaka. The station is equipped with ample amenities, including escalators, lifts, and refresh rooms for men, women, and those with physical disabilities. Accessing any of the three platforms is made easy with a footover bridge connected to escalators, staircases, and a ramp bridge facilitating movement between platforms. Md Taijul Islam, senior engineer of Max Infrastructure Limited, construction partner of the project, said the newly constructed rail station boasts modern facilities comparable to those found in international airports. Sona Ali, a Saudi expatriate from Baharchara in Teknaf, expressed happiness upon visiting the station yesterday, noting the significance of such a structure in Cox’s Bazar. He mentioned that he can now proudly inform his foreign friends that Bangladesh has a rail station equipped with modern facilities. The construction work of Dohazari-Cox’s Bazar railway project at Tk 18,034 crore, started in July 2018 with the involvement of Chinese contractors from China Railway Engineering Corporation, Tama Construction Company, and China Civil Engineering Construction Corporation, alongside Bangladesh’s Max Infrastructure Limited. As part of the fast-track initiatives of the government, the railway station’s construction, a component of the larger project, comes with a price tag of Tk 215 crore.

committee member, said he will run independently. There is no restriction from the party on independent candidates from within, he claimed. Abu Reza Mohammad Nezamuddin Nadvi secured AL nomination for Chattogram-15 (Satkania) constituency, while MA Motaleb, Satkania upazila unit AL president and former upazila chairman, has decided to run independently. Contacted, Motaleb confirmed that he plans to submit nomination form on November 30. “The party said incumbent and former lawmakers who did not get nomination this time cannot run in the polls. However, there is no such restriction for new leaders who want to contest independently,” he claimed. The Daily Star could not independently verify his claim.
