

A 'free ride' to woo voters

Amusement park owned by Dinajpur-6 AL candidate offers free entry to locals

KONGKON KARMAKER

While candidates come up with a lot of strategies to sway voters in their favour, the Awami League candidate of Dinajpur-6 has allegedly gone for a rather unusual approach - offering free entry to an amusement park.

Swapnopuri, the largest private amusement park in Dinajpur's Nawabganj upazila, is now offering free entry to the voters in Dinajpur-6 constituency, which comprises Nawabganj, Birampur, Hakimpur, and Ghoraghat upazilas.

Shibli Sadeeq, an incumbent lawmaker, is contesting the polls from this constituency with the "boat" symbol.

He is also the managing director of the park while being a 50-percent shareholder.

The usual per person entry fee in that park is Tk 100, according to locals. But now it costs nothing, allegedly to influence the constituency's voters, which has also triggered the question of a probable violation of the electoral code of conduct.

The free entry has been effective since December 25 and will continue till January 4, said locals. The visitors will have to carry a copy of their national ID card and provide their information.

AL, independent candidates show-cause in Pabna

STAR REPORT

The electoral enquiry committee yesterday issued show-cause notices to the Pabna-3 Awami League candidate Md Mokbul Hossain and independent candidate Abdul Hamid Master for violating the electoral code of conduct.

Md Tazul Islam, Pabna joint district judge and electoral enquiry committee chairman, issued separate show-cause notices to the candidates for setting up excessive election camps in the constituency.

Mokbul, the incumbent lawmaker from Pabna-3, and Hamid, an AL leader, have been asked to appear before the committee on Sunday to submit explanations.

Seventeen notices have been issued in the Pabna-3 constituency so far, ahead of the 12th parliamentary election on January 7.

These were the first show-cause notices issued against Mokbul and Hamid.

41.9 tonnes of imported rawhide seized

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Benapole

Customs officials seized 41.9 tonnes of imported buffalo rawhide at Benapole Port on Thursday night.

According to customs sources, the seizure was made due to a violation of import permission conditions on the import of animals and animal products.

Chanpur Tannery Ltd Dhaka is the importer of the consignment.

On December 19, the 41.9 tonnes of buffalo rawhide was imported from India.

A C&F agent named Supreme Associates submitted a bill of entry to the customs house for delivery of the consignment, said Sharsha Upazila Animal Resources Officer Binay Krishna.

Import of such goods without quarantine certificate is strictly prohibited, he added.

BARGUNA-1

Independents giving Shambhu a run for his money

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

Dhirendra Debnath Shambhu, five-time lawmaker from Barguna-1 (Sadar, Amtali, Taltali) and Awami League candidate from the constituency in the January 7 polls, is under pressure from three heavyweight independent candidates from the same party.

Deprived of the party's nomination, Barguna district AL joint general secretary Golam Sarwar Tuku (eagle), former relief and social welfare secretary of AL central sub-committee Khalilur Rahman (truck) and former Amtali upazila AL unit president Golam Charwar Forkan (scissor), are vying for the polls as independent aspirants.

They have been campaigning against Shambhu from the very beginning.

The independent candidates, in their efforts to woo the voters at public gatherings, have been raising numerous allegations against Shambhu, and claimed that people now want to see change.

Contacted, Tuku said despite being a lawmaker five times since 1991, Shambhu could not bring about any visible development to Barguna.

"The district still lags behind in education, health, communication and infrastructure.

There has not been a single bridge constructed, while the neighbouring Patuakhali district saw establishment of a university, a medical college, Payra port, thermal power station, and cantonment," he said.

Forkan alleged that Shambhu

BNP has no right to do politics

"While we develop the country for the people, the BNP-Jamaat unleash arson attacks," she said.

In this connection, the premier mentioned the recent arson attacks on trains that left a number of people dead.

Condemning those attacks, the AL president said the BNP-Jamaat had carried out such arson attacks in 2001, 2013 and 2014.

Hasina said the BNP-Jamaat want to foil the upcoming election.

The AL chief sought votes for "boat" so that her party can serve the people again. She urged all to go to the polling centres early in the morning of January 7.

She said Bangladesh earned independence as people voted for "boat" in 1970.

Hasina introduced the AL and 14-party alliance candidates in Barishal division to the audience.

The PM said whenever the AL comes to power, the country moves forward. This advancement has to be continued, she added.

She said the development of Bangladesh is visible now and this has been possible due to the AL's continuation in power for 15 years.

The premier said her government will bring gas to Barishal for massive industrialisation and development of the region.

She said a medical university will be set up in Barishal like the other divisional headquarters in the country.

Hasina said if voted to power again, her government will construct a six-lane road from Bhanga to Barishal to ease communication.

Referring to her party's goal to build "smart Bangladesh" by 2041, the AL chief said, "In Bangladesh, our children will be well educated with proper education.

"They will learn science and technology, and become skilled human resources. We will build them as smart and skilled human resource."

In "smart Bangladesh", the government will be smart using digital technology, agriculture will be mechanised, economy will be smart economy and the society will be turned into a smart society, she added. She called upon the students to continue their studies attentively, as no country gets developed without proper education.

AL General Secretary Obaidul Quader, Barishal City Corporation Mayor Abul khair Abdullah, AL advisory council members Amir Hossain Amu and Yusuf Hossain Humayun, Workers Party President Rashed Khan Menon, and Jatiya Party (Manju) Chairman Anwar Hossain Manju, among others, also spoke at the rally, with Barishal AL President Abul Hasnat Abdullah in the chair.

At the outset, cultural activists from Barishal performed local traditional songs to welcome Hasina and Rehana.
