On December 22, Faisal was photographed with his supporters in the office, campaigning with scissors. Faisal's supporters actively shared these campaign photographs on social media platforms.

Faisal's supporters assemble at the office daily to discuss and plan the campaign, said Munshiganj municipality officials, adding that Faisal himself visited the office and talked with his supporters twice between December 22 and December 25.

Contacted, Faisal denied such allegations. "I always try to abide by the electoral code of conduct," he said.

Abu Jafor Ripon, returning officer and deputy commissioner of Munshiganj, could not be contacted despite repeated attempts.

However, Afifa Khan, assistant returning officer, said, "We don't know anything about this matter. We'll take necessary steps if we receive any complaints."

of the foreign ministry, were also present.

While speaking to reporters, DB Chief Harun Or Rashid said another group of the joint team asked about arrests of top BNP leaders and how they were treated in custody.

The members also asked about BNP leader Ruhul Kabir Rizvi and sabotage centring the election.

They enquired about the attack on Ashraf Hossain Alom, also known as Hero Alom.

"We informed them that those (BNP leaders) we have arrested are all FIR-listed accused. Besides, some senior BNP leaders also visited the DB office. None of them said we have misbehaved with them or that they were tortured."

"When the team asked about BNP leader Rizvi, we told them he is accused in several cases. Yet, he is distributing anti-government and anti-state leaflets. We showed them the BNP leaflets stating, 'boycott election, don't give tax'," he added.

Regarding Hero Alom, Harun said, "We told them that it's an incident of the previous election and it happened on the road outside the polling centre. We arrested all those involved in this incident."

'More worried about making ends meet'

No election hype in Lalmonirhat, Kurigram

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

While electioneering is going on in full swing across the country, day labourers Abdur Rahim and Abdul Awal in Kurigram Sadar are yet to decide whether they will vote.

Both are in their early sixties, living in Sardob, a village located on the banks of the Dharla river at Holokhana union.

Unaware of the election date (January 7), they have no other plans for the day but to set off early in the morning to ensure they return home with Tk 400, their daily wage.

"I had visited the polling centre during the 10th and 11th polls but could not vote as it was already cast. I am no longer interested in visiting the centres," said Rahim.

Awal echoed him. "I am more worried about making ends meet," he said.

Most villagers in Kurigram and Lalmonirhat said the same, adding they are yet to witness the "election hype".

"None of the candidates visited our village yet. So, I am unsure if I want to vote this year," said Salim Uddin, a 67-year-old farmer.

However, things were not like this before, mentioned Salim. Political discussions used to be common at tea stalls, abuzz with locals from morning to night while candidates used to visit their villages regularly.

Lutfar Mia, a 55-year-old farmer from Kalmati village at the Teesta riverbank, said, "I might not vote this year... a third time in a row," he said.

Naser Uddin, an NGO worker, said over half the voters of the shoals in the Brahmaputra basin in Kurigram are not interested to cast votes.

Mentionable, 45 candidates are contesting from three constituencies of Lalmonirhat and four of Kurigram. Lalmonirhat has 10,62,094 listed voters while the number is 17,82,032 in Kurigram.

BNP on the run

Most Sylhet leaders hiding to avoid arrest; Mymensingh office padlocked since Oct 29

DWOHA CHOWDHURY and AMINUL ISLAM

BNP is facing an uphill battle in different parts of the country in maintaining its existence on the streets due to mass arrests.

In Sylhet, over 300 BNP leaders and activists are in jail. Their programmes are mostly confined to leaflet distribution, that too on a limited scale.

On December 23, police arrested five individuals, including BNP Sylhet city unit general secretary Emdad Hossain Chowdhury and Jubo Dal's Sylhet district unit president Muminul Islam, while they were distributing leaflets in Bandarbazar.

BNP leaders alleged that law enforcement agencies are raiding the such direction to law enforcement agencies, there is no reflection of that."

MYMENSINGH

Turning westward, in Mymensingh city, the BNP office has remained padlocked since October 29.

AKM Mahbubur Rahman, joint-convenor of Mymensingh City BNP alleged they cannot gather at the party office on Horikishore Roy Road due to police raids.

Many leaders are also on the run to avoid arrests under different "false" cases, Mahbub said.

Md Jewel Mia, caretaker of the office, said he had never witnessed such a situation under any elected government during his service at the office in 26 years.

houses of its activists to make arrests.

BNP and its allies have no running office in Sylhet due to continuous raids and arrest sprees by law enforcers, they added.

Moksdud Ahmed, general secretary of Sylhet Jubo Dal, said, "We can't stay at home or roam openly in the street... I am also living a fugitive life with 10 fresh cases."

On Saturday, Chief Election Commissioner Kazi Habibur Awal, in his visit to Sylhet, said BNP boycotting the polls is a democratic right, and law enforcers were directed to consider it that way if BNP remains peaceful.

Abdul Quiyum Chowdhury, president of the Sylhet district unit of BNP, said, "Two of our leaders were recently arrested during a peaceful leaflet distribution programme. Even if the CEC truly gave

"We have been continuing our programme of distributing anti election leaflets in the city and other parts of the district, but we are in constant fear of police arrest," said a BNP leader.

After the arrest of Emran Saleh Prince, a central leader and organising secretary of BNP in Mymensingh, most party men have gone into hiding.

Police recently arrested 10 BNP men from different areas of the city when they were preparing for protest rallies.

OC Md Faruq Hossain of Mymensingh district Detective Branch of Police said he was not aware of the BNP office being padlocked. BNP men can gather at their office, as there is no bar from police. Police only arrested those accused in different cases, he said.
