Cropped blazers

Cropped blazers have become a wardrobe staple in recent years. From a day at the workplace to a laid-back day with friends, these winter blazers are perfect for every occasion. A black cropped blazer, thus, could be an essential wardrobe staple.

Women can wear cropped blazers in various ways. It can be casually matched with a pair of skinny jeans and sneakers or layered over a dress for a romantic winter evening in the town. For men, a cropped jacket paired with high-waisted pants or wide-legged jeans in a colour that contrasts and a big belt is the perfect stylish outfit.

Trench coats

A timeless trench coat is an absolute must-have as your winter outerwear. You can never go wrong with adding them to your wardrobe because of how versatile they are and how classic their style is. Colours like khaki, black, and grey are incredibly adaptable; they go with almost anything and will be useful even when styles come and go.

To stand out, a large trench coat is a great piece of outerwear for women to pair with a T-shirt, loose pants, and sneakers. To finish off this chic street look, add a purse and stack on the bling. One of the stylish ways for men to wear these coats is with a turtleneck in either black or white along with some Chelsea boots.

Sounds wonderful, right? Well, if you are seeking high-quality, stylish winter outerwear, it is always a good idea to buy at shopping malls that carry renowned brands. The pricing range can be from Tk 4,000 to 6,000. Do not be alarmed if the price tag seems a little high.
