

SECURITY CONFERENCE PM to visit Munich on February 16-18

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina will be visiting Germany to attend the Munich Security Conference to be held on February 16-18.

This will be her first foreign visit after she assumed the office for the fifth time following the January 7 elections.

"The prime minister has decided to attend the Munich conference. The discussions on bilateral meetings on the sidelines of the conference are underway," Foreign Minister Hasan Mahmud told journalists yesterday.

The Munich Security Conference 2024 will offer unique opportunity for high-level debates on the world's most pressing security challenges.

Additionally, the conference will celebrate its 60th anniversary up to and during the next main conference that will be an assembly of senior decision-makers and thought-leaders from around the world for discussions on the most pressing international security concerns in February 2024.

The conference takes place at a time when there are a number of crises affecting the global economy, including the Russia-Ukraine war and Israel-Palestine war, which has serious implications for Bangladesh as well.

Workshop on climate change loss held

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

A workshop on loss and damage caused by climate change was held at Khulna city's CSS AVA Centre yesterday.

The speakers at the programme, organised by ADAMS, highlighted how people are becoming homeless due to various disasters – including storms, floods, river erosion, heavy rains, tides, and salinity of the land.

Many of them have lost their livelihoods and are living in the slums of Khulna city, they said.

As there is no exact number of climate refugees, the victims do not get proper health and sanitation facilities, they further emphasised.

Khulna City Corporation Mayor Talukder Abdul Khaleque was present as the chief guest.

Hope for ICU patients

CMCH's new 32-bed ward opens tomorrow

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Chattogram

Following a heart attack last Saturday, Nur Mohammad Chowdhury, a retired postmaster, was rushed to Chattogram Medical College Hospital.

Doctors recommended his immediate admission to the intensive care unit but there was no vacant bed at the hospital's 20-bed ICU.

Kept in waiting by the on-duty doctors, his family members tried their best to find a bed. However, Nur's condition kept deteriorating until his heart finally gave up the next day.

At least 15 patients, suffering from respiratory failure, heart attack, brain stroke, burn injuries, kidney dialysis, trauma and head injuries arrive at the hospital with an urgent need for intensive care. However, only one out of two are able to find a bed, that too if a patient gets discharged or dies, said Dr

Harun-ur-Rashid, head of Anesthesia and Intensive Care at CMCH.

With that in mind, the hospital is going to launch a new 32-bed ICU tomorrow to ease patients' sufferings.

"This hospital witnesses around 15 such deaths daily, while their loved ones make their best efforts to find them a place at the ICU," he mentioned, adding that the new 32-bed unit will help improve the situation.

Health minister Dr Samanta Lal Sen is scheduled to inaugurate the new unit as chief guest tomorrow morning.

CMCH director Brig Gen Shamim Ahsan said, "The 2,200-bed hospital needs an ICU with a capacity of at least 100 beds. We plan to increase the number gradually."

CAPSIZING IN PATURIA Ferry Rajanigandha salvaged after 7 days

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Manikganj

Rajanigandha, the ferry that sank in the Padma river near Manikganj's Paturia a week ago, was salvaged and brought to shore on Wednesday night.

The ferry was anchored in the Solar Power Panel Project area near Paturia Terminal at 10:45pm, said Lt Shah Poran Emon, head of the Navy's diving team that conducted the rescue operations.

He said the rescue operations were hampered due to heavy current in the river, fog and the cold weather.

The sunken ferry and all the goods-laden vehicles were rescued and the body of the missing second engine master of the ferry have already been recovered. There is nothing left to salvage, he said.

JOURNO NADIM MURDER SC extends stay on HC bail for prime accused

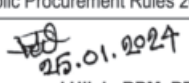

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court yesterday extended its chamber judge's order that stayed the High Court bail for suspended UP chairman Mahmudul Alam Babu, the prime accused in the murder case of Jamalpur-based journalist Golam Rabbani Nadim.

A five-member bench of the Appellate Division headed by Chief Justice Obaidul Hassan passed the order after disposing of a leave to appeal petition filed by the state, challenging the HC order that granted bail to Mahmudul.

Following the order, Mahmudul cannot get released from jail.

Nadim, who was the Jamalpur district correspondent of Banglanews24.com and also the Bakshiganj upazila correspondent of Ekattor TV, died on June 15 last year, a day after being attacked allegedly by supporters of Mahmudul.
