

Man to die for killing RMG worker after rape

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Narayanganj

A Narayanganj court yesterday sentenced a man to death in a case filed over the murder of a female garment worker after rape in Siddhirganj six years ago.

Judge Nazmul Hoque Shyamol of the Women and Children Repression Prevention Tribunal announced the verdict in absence of the convict, Ashrafal Alam, 36, said public prosecutor Rakibuddin Ahmed.

On November 25 in 2018, the woman stayed home instead of going to work. No one else was in the house at the time. When her relatives went there, they found her dead.

During investigation, police found the involvement of Ashrafal Alam, one of the victim's neighbours, in her rape and murder.

TEKNAF-ST MARTIN'S ROUTE Tourist ship operation halted from tomorrow

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The movement of tourist ships on Teknaf-Saint Martin's Island route will be suspended from Saturday for "security reasons" amid the ongoing fighting in Myanmar along the border with Bangladesh.

In an announcement on Wednesday, the administration said operations of all tourist boats from Teknaf to St Martin's will be suspended from Saturday until further notice, due to security reasons.

All ships will be in operation till Friday, said Teknaf Upazila Nirbahi Officer Adnan Chowdhury.

Adnan said that although the movement of tourist ships from Teknaf will remain suspended, the ships from Chattogram and Cox's Bazar will continue to operate.

Cox's Bazar district administration tourism cell executive magistrate Mohammad Masud Rana said 10 tourist ships are plying the Teknaf-St Martin route.

The people of the border areas of Bandarban and Cox's Bazar are under threat for last few weeks due to the fighting between Myanmar government forces and rebel group Arakan Army near the border.

What could be the perfect way to spend time after school than visiting the Ekushey Boi Mela with friends. The month-long festival is going on in full swing at Khulna's Divisional Public Library. Over a hundred stalls have been set up at the fair, welcoming visitors of all ages.
