UNLOCKING LOVE'S COSMIC CODE

Astrological compatibility among lovers

As an astrologer, one of the most common questions I get asked is about love and astrology CAN be a fantastic tool for understanding long-term compatibility between two people. The stars have a great deal of wisdom to impart when it comes to dissecting our love lives and scoping out potential partners.

However, we have to go a bit deeper than just sun signs. As humans, we are incredibly complex and our natal charts, which is a snapshot of the sky at our exact time of birth, can visually depict all of those complexities and dualities. So, while you may hear that Pisces and Leo are not compatible signs, a couple with those sun signs may have other commonalities or aspects in their chart that make them highly compatible.

The first step to gauging compatibility is understanding the elements and how they work together.

There are four elements — fire (Aries, Leo, Sagittarius), earth (Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn), air (Gemini, Libra, Aquarius), and water (Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces).

Fire signs tend to be more outgoing, passionate, and enthusiastic. Earth signs are more grounded, stable, and reliable. Air signs are communicative, detached, and cerebral. Water signs are more intuitive, emotional, and sensitive. Each of these requires different things from their partners.

Signs that share the same elements generally tend to be highly compatible as there is an easy flow of energy. There is also a high level of compatibility between complementary elements, such as earth and water and fire and air.

Cosmically aligned love — The best zodiac couples

Aries and Gemini - This is a couple that could have a lot of fun together, and be spontaneous but patience will not be their strong suit.

Taurus and Capricorn - This couple will have similar views about work, life and love, and Taurus will encourage Capricorn to have a bit of fun and Capricorn can teach Taurus about delaying gratification.

Gemini and Aquarius - This is a couple that would nerd out and have the best time having the kookiest conversations discussing wild ideas and concepts.

Cancer and Virgo - As a couple, these two are natural caretakers and would easily be able to create a beautiful home together.

Leo and Libra - This can be a loving and affectionate pair that lifts each other and is great in social settings.

Virgo and Scorpio - Virgo's meticulous and judgmental ways gel extremely well with Scorpio's mysterious demeanour. They are likely to keep their circle small.

Libra and Sagittarius - These two signs have similar views of justice and freedom. Sagittarius can teach Libra to be more independent and Libra can help Sagittarius act more refined.

Scorpio and Capricorn - The two darkest signs of the zodiac have a lot in common, especially their steely determination and secretive behaviour.

Sagittarius and Leo - This can be a very outgoing and gregarious pairing, one that will always be up for fun.

Capricorn and Cancer - As opposite signs, these two perfectly complement each other as the daddy and the mommy of the zodiac respectively.

Aquarius and Sagittarius - These two have a lot in common, especially their love of freedom and autonomy.

Pisces and Virgo - This is a great pairing, especially because Virgo can ground Pisces and Pisces can add a little magic to Virgo's life.
