PM returns home from Munich

BSS, Dhaka

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina arrived in Dhaka yesterday morning after wrapping up her three-day official visit to attend Munich Security Conference-2024.

A regular flight of the Biman Bangladesh Airlines carrying the premier and her entourage landed at the Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport at 11:00am.

The flight departed from München Franz Josef Strauss Airport, München, Germany around 09:08pm (local time) yesterday.

The premier arrived in Munich on February 15 in her first official visit since assuming office after winning the 12th parliamentary election.

During her stay in Munich, Hasina attended the opening ceremony of the Munich Security Conference and held meetings with global leaders on the sidelines of the conference.

The premier had bilateral meetings with German Chancellor Olaf Scholz, Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelenskyy, Netherlands Prime Minister Mark Rutte, Azerbaijan President Ilham Aliyev, Qatar Prime Minister Mohammed Bin Abdulrahman Al-Thani and Denmark Prime Minister Mette Frederiksen.

Indian External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and former Prime Minister of UK and current Minister of Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Affairs Lord Cameron and German Federal Minister for Economic Cooperation and Development Svenja Schulze also called on the prime minister.

CAT'S DAY OUT AT BOI MELA

Crawled up in his caregiver's lap, a special guest visited the stall of Anupam Prakashany at Suhrawardy Udyan yesterday. He quickly became the centre of attention as all gathered to greet, hold, and click photos with him. Inset, scores of bookworms continue to throng the Ekushey Boi Mela premises.

SHAHEEN MOLLAH

It was 7:45am. Like countless mornings before, textile engineer Fakhrul Hasan Rifat started steering his motorcycle through Dhaka streets yesterday, with his wife Jarin Tasnim Nawshin confidently perched behind him as the couple started their usual day.

Married in 2022, the couple was expecting their first child in three months.

As both were employed, Rifat used to first drop off his wife, also a textile engineer, at her workplace in Gulshan-2 before heading to office in Panthapath.

Police will not spare anyone if found guilty in the death of teenage domestic worker Preeti Urang, who fell from The Daily Star executive editor's eighth-floor flat in the capital's Mohammadpur on February 6, said DB chief Harun Or Rashid yesterday.

"We are investigating the incident. We think we will be able to find out what actually happened," he said, replying to a query at a briefing at his office on Minto Road.

A Dhaka court on Sunday sent Executive Editor of The Daily Star Syed Ashfaul Haque and his wife Tania Khondoker to jail on completion of their four-day police remand in a case filed over
