"Present the list of the 80 percent of BNP leaders and activists who have allegedly faced torture. Who are they?" Quader questioned. "Mirza Fakhrul, Mirza Abbas, and Amir Khasru -- all of them were released from jail one by one," he added.

The AL general secretary also stated that the people of the country have rejected BNP for engaging in "negative politics."

"BNP is becoming increasingly irrelevant day by day," he remarked.

"Before the elections, BNP had colluded with foreign powers, attempted to impose a ban on Bangladesh, and conspired to disrupt the polls," said Quader.

Minister "Prime Sheikh Hasina's focus on development, humanity, and inclusive politics has pushed BNP's politics into obscurity. They are now unable to emerge from this darkness," he said.

Quader accused BNP of spreading propaganda and falsehoods against the ruling AL, reports BSS.

"The AL is never subservient to any foreign power or state," he said. "Bangladesh is in our hearts and Bangladesh is in our spirits. That is what we hold dear."

Patuakhali youths spread joy with 'Garib-er Iftarkhana' initiative

SOHRAB HOSSAIN, Patuakhali

For the past three years, a voluntary organisation has been providing free meals to low-income people for iftar in Patuakhali town.

Iftarkhana" by a group of local youths provides free meals to around 200 people, including day labourers, at Jhautola every day.

Visiting the spot recently, this correspondent saw people having iftar sitting on mats on the roadside while being served around 11 items, including water, dates, chickpeas, potato chops, juice, banana, jilapi, and puffed rice.

Furthermore, Municipality Mayor Mohiuddin Ahmed has arranged for people to do ablutions (wudu) and Maghrib prayers.

"The rising prices of essentials have left us reeling to make both ends meet for our families. This initiative has been of much respite for poor people like me," said Hatem Ali, 62, a day labourer.

"It takes at least Tk 200 to buy these items for Iftar. They are offering us the meal for free. It is a great initiative," said Jewel Sardar, 42, a pedestrian.

"I felt a lot of peace and satisfaction breaking my fast at Garib-er Iftarkhana. I pray that almighty Allah keeps the organisers well and in good health," said Zainal Gazi, 65, a rickshaw puller.

Mahmud Hasan Raihan, president The initiative, termed "Garib-er of Patuakhalibasi, said, "In the present scenario regarding commodity prices, low-income people are in a difficult situation. Our initiative over the past three years is a small attempt to help the fasting people with a free meal daily to ease their sufferings a bit."

initiative will continue throughout the month of Ramadan with help from affluent members of society, he added.

Patuakhali mayor Ahmed thanked the organisers.

A FADING LEGACY

Even though Uddin Ahmed was an internationally renowned photographer, memories of his work are slowly fading in the minds of his own people in Mymensingh.

His camera has preserved some of the most striking scenes from the Liberation War -- scenes of torture, aggression, and grave injustice. Yet, only a few of his colleagues, well-wishers, family members remember the veteran behind the lenses today.

Some of his photographs are widely used on different occasions, but his name is never seen on the credits. "It's quite painful for us," said Mahmuda Nasrin Kajol, Naib's daughter-in-law.

of his most One works, popular the photograph historic "Three Freedom Fighters," is displayed in the main corridor of the Ministry of Liberation War Affairs, but it does not bear Naib's name, lamented Kajol.

The committee said the people of Bangladesh suffered a brutal and gruesome genocide 53 years ago.

"For nearly six months, Israel has relentlessly conducted a monstrous genocide against nearly 2.5 million women, men, and children in Palestine, disregarding blatantly all civilised norms and principles of our global community," it added.

With eminent thinker and writer Prof Serajul Islam Choudhury as the convener, PSCB comprises distinguished individuals, professionals, and activists from political, social, and organisations, cultural along with members from civil society.

PSCB said Israel has indiscriminately killed 32,070 Palestinian civilians over the course of a sixmonth military campaign. According to the US Secretary of Defence. 25.000 women and children have been killed in Gaza.

As part of its ethnic cleansing efforts, Israel continues condemnation and plans large-scale military attacks, it added.

It is widely recognised that since its establishment 1948, Israel has disregarded consistently resolutions concerning the Palestinian Israel has ignored all 140 resolutions passed between 2015 and 2022, in addition to violating the Geneva Conventions and fundamental human rights principles for over 75 years. By persistently flouting international laws and norms, Israel has demonstrated its disregard for civilised conduct, it added.

In the light of these circumstances, contend that Israel has forfeited all moral rights and iustifications to retain its membership in the UN and its affiliated institutions, the letter adds.

The letter urged the UN Security Council, the UN General Assembly, and all member states to expel Israel, in accordance with Article 6 of the UN Charter.

"All these activities are going on across only 1.5km stretch of the 76km long river. We want to see the entire river saved and its flow restored, otherwise the rest of the river will remain dirty and dead," said Babul Khan, a local resident.

"I would like to thank the people for their cooperation. At the same time, I urge them not to try to occupy the river's land again. Necessary legal action will be taken against anyone trying to encroach on the river again later," said Md Kaiserul Islam, deputy commissioner of Tangail.

The DC also vowed to keep the river clean, and excavate it to restore its natural flow.
