The four deceased were buried side-by-side on Tuesday evening.

Meanwhile, another family also fell victim to the same accident.

Popi Akhter, was travelling with her husband, Igbal Sheikh, 25, and their one-year-old son, to visit Igbal's cousin in Dhaka. Popi and Iqbal did not survive the accident, leaving their baby an orphan.

"My daughter and sonin-law are gone, and now their little boy has no parents," said Popi's father Nannu Ali.

"Now how will this child grow up without a mother and father?" he cried.

At least 15 people were killed in the horrific collision in Faridpur, while several others were injured.

HOLICHERRA TEA GARDEN

450 trees felled on govt land

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Moulvibazar

Around 450 trees, including at least 52 Akashmani trees, have been illegally felled and sold off on a government land within Luayuni-Holicherra Tea Garden area under Kulaura upazila of Moulvibazar.

A case has been filed in this connection on April 10, accusing Farooq Ahmad Chowdhury and Mahmud Hasan Prince, the garden's general manager and deputy manager respectively, and 20 unnamed others.

Amir Uddin, a sub-inspector of Kulaura Police Station, said, "Bijay Chandra Sheel, assistant land officer at Brahmanbazar union land office, filed the case under the Forest Act on April Investigation is going on in this connection, he added.

Confirming the matter, Mehedi Hasan, assistant commissioner (Land) in the upazila said, "A total 450 trees were cut down and sold from the garden. On information, Riaz Uddin,

Meanwhile, 23 logs of Akashmoni trees were recovered from a village near the Tea Estate yesterday. "We think the logs were from the trees felled at Holicherra Tea Garden area," claimed Mehedi.

"They [tea garden authority] violated the lease agreement. Besides, the government has lost revenue," he added.

Contacted, Mahmud Hasan Prince, deputy manager of the garden, said some trees were cut down in the garden recently after those were damaged in storm.

The wood from these trees would be used for construction of staff quarters and waiting room, he also said.

He, however, claimed that no other tree was cut or sold, adding that they did not know anything about the case.
