

A life dedicated to affordable healthcare

Speakers on Dr Zafrullah Chowdhury

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, City

Dr Zafrullah Chowdhury was a humanitarian who dedicated his life to serving the ordinary people, said speakers at an event yesterday.

They urged the government to rename Chattogram Medical University after his name.

"Bir Muktiyoddha Dr Zafrullah Chowdhury Nagorik Smaronsava Ayojan Committee" organised the meeting at Chattogram Press Club.

People in Bangladesh can buy medicine at a cheaper rate thanks to the drug policy formulated by Zafrullah, said Dr Mahfuzur Rahman, convener of Public Health Rights Protection Committee, Chattogram.

Hasan Maruf Rumi, coordinator of Gano Sanghati Andolan in Chattogram, said the political landscape of the country has lost a guardian after Zafrullah's passing.

Dr Imran Bin Yunus, former professor of the Nephrology Department at Chittagong Medical College, said although Zafrullah's drug policy provided relief to patients by controlling prices during the reign of Ershad, the system of price control has been relaxed under subsequent democratic governments.

Zafrullah's wife and founding member of Naripokkho, Shirin Haque, recounted an incident during Zafrullah's dialysis at the Gonoshasthaya Dialysis Centre, where a woman named Hasina Begum, the sister of a rickshaw-puller, was receiving treatment beside him.

"When Zafrullah inquired about her next dialysis session, Hasina replied that she did not know when her brother would manage to gather enough money for her treatment," Shirin said.

"I witnessed Zafrullah crying after his dialysis that day. Why did I fight in the Liberation War if poor people like Hasina cannot avail dialysis facilities," Shirin cited Zafrullah as saying.

Freedom Fighter Faruk-e-Azam Bir Pratik said Zafrullah faced various forms of harassment from the rulers, including being entangled in 33 defamation cases.

"Even a case of fish theft was also filed against him," he said.

Hayat Hossain, a former professor of Chittagong University, said Dr Zafrullah was the pioneer of women empowerment in this country.

Prof Dr Robiul Hossain, managing trustee of Chattogram Eye Infirmary and Training Complex, presided over the meeting.

Don't persecute civilians

Human Rights Forum urge govt on drives against KNF

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Civilians should not be persecuted while conducting operations against Kuki-Chin National Front, said Human Rights Forum Bangladesh in a statement yesterday.

The forum of 20 human rights organisation, led by human rights experts Dr Hameeda Hossain, advocate Sultana Kamal and Raja Devasish Roy, has expressed concern over the allegations of harassment of regular citizens in the Chattogram Hill Tracts, where the security forces are conducting operations against the separatist group.

The forum decried the activities of KNF, terming their operations criminal activities.

Earlier this month, KNF conducted a series of attacks on banks and abducted a bank manager, leading to the operations against the group.

"In addition to members of KNF, allegations have risen that the security forces are harassing, detaining, and arbitrarily arresting civilians belonging to the

BANGBANDHU KILLING Committee formed to find, recognise 'resistance fighters'

UNB, Dhaka

The High Court has formed a four-member committee to identify and recognise the "resistance fighters" (1975-1979) who protested the assassination of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and his family members.

The committee, comprising the secretary of the Liberation War Affairs Ministry, the home secretary, the social welfare secretary, and the finance secretary, has been asked to submit its report to the court by August 4.

A High Court bench of Justice Naima Haider and Justice Kazi Zinat Hoque passed the order yesterday after the final hearing of a petition.

The court observed that despite their sacrifices, the "resistance fighters" had not been given state recognition even after 47 years of Bangabandhu's assassination.

The court also directed the committee to take necessary steps to provide rehabilitation to the "resistance fighters" who are still alive.
