HSBC's 2023 profit

FROM PAGE B1 results shows that our strategy is working," said the bank in an email reply yesterday.

"Our international connectivity remains our biggest differentiator - for businesses, communities, and the customers we serve," it added.

HSBC announced its massive profit hot on the heels of multinational Standard Chartered Bangladesh (SCB) last month declaring the biggest profit of the banking sector in the country till date.

SCB said its profit had gone up 41 percent year-on-year last year, riding on higher interest income and earnings from investments in treasury bills and bonds. The profit amounted to Tk 2,335 crore in 2023 whereas it was Tk 1,655 crore in 2022, according to its financial reports.

Among the local banks, Dutch Bangla Bank recorded a profit of around Tk 800 crore, one of the highest among private banks, posting a growth of nearly 42 percent.

HSBC, which began its banking operations in Dhaka in 1996, said it increased its investments in treasury bonds to reap the benefits of their high yields.

However, it reduced its loans and advances. At the end of the year, HSBC had 34 percent more treasury bills and bonds than what it had in 2022.

It was to the tune of Tk 11,647 crore whereas it was Tk 8,683 crore in the previous year. The loan portfolio decreased 3.77 percent to Tk 21,709 crore.

The foreign bank, however, recorded a hike of almost 17 percent in its classified loans, which reached Tk 699 crore. Of the classified loans, Tk 499 crore was "bad loans", Tk 129 crore "substandard" and the rest "doubtful".

The bank remitted a profit of Tk 113 crore to its head office in 2023 whereas it was Tk 272 crore in the preceding year.

The bank said there was an ambiguity around the inclusion of banking and non-banking financial institutions within the scope of maintaining a worker's profit participation fund under Bangladesh Labour Act, 2006.

As per the law, employers need to provide 5 percent of their net profit to the worker's participation fund. However, it is in contradiction with the Bank Company Act, 1991.

The ambiguities are yet to be clarified and therefore, the probability of a legal obligation for payments out of the fund is low at the current stage, for which no provision has been made for the same.

However, as long as the issue is not resolved, HSBC Bangladesh is maintaining sufficient retained earnings to meet any future liability, which was estimated at Tk 305 crore.

New entity

FROM PAGE B1 boosted through the digitalisation of products and offerings, strengthening governance, increasing transparency, and expanding to rural areas through education and awareness centre expansions," it added.

Sheikh Kabir Hossain told The Daily Star that they had not yet received any response from IDRA. Except a few companies, most life insurers are in a very bad condition at present, he said.

"If I can start a new company, I can manage it properly. The people of the country will benefit from this," he added.

Zahangir Alam, spokesperson of IDRA, told The Daily Star that they received the application but could not provide any information beyond that. However, seeking anonymity, a senior official of the IDRA underlined the unofficial process.

new company. Afterwards, a summary about the company is sent from the IDRA to the Financial Institutions Division. Then, it is sent to the PMO.

"But the PMO has yet to give any verbal instructions regarding this company," the official added.

On condition of anonymity, the chairman of an insurance company said that 10-12 life insurance companies are in a very bad condition, with some on the brink of bankruptcy.

"It is very sad to ask for a letter of consent for the registration of another life insurance company," the chairman said, adding that if the IDRA did not take proper steps against weak companies and instead licenced another, it would not be good for the industry.

"If we talk about compliance, then insurance companies are lagging far behind compared to banks," said Prof Md Main Uddin, a former chairman of the Department of Banking and Insurance at the University of Dhaka. Many banks are going towards mergers to reduce the number of banks and it is also important to reduce the number of insurance companies through mergers, Main added. At present, the overall economic situation of Bangladesh is not good, he said while adding that applying for a license during such a time is illogical and audacious. He opined that if the license is granted, the condition of the insurance market is likely to worsen.
