CJ, 5 other SC judges resign

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Chief Justice Obaidul Hassan and five other judges of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court stepped down yesterday amid student protests for their resignation.

They sent resignation letters to President Mohammed Shahabuddin through the law ministry and he accepted their resignations.

The development comes only two days after the interim government took charge.

The five other judges are: Justice M Enayetur Rahim, Justice Md Abu Zafor Siddique, Justice Jahangir Hossain Selim, Justice Md Shahinur Islam and Justice Kashefa

Media reports last night said Justice Ashfaqul also resigned, but Law Secretary Golam Sarwar told The Daily Star at 10:30pm that he had not received any resignation letter from Justice Ashfaqul.

The president last night appointed Justice Syed Refaat Ahmed as the 25th chief justice.
