Man arrested over rape in Moulvibazar OUR CORRESPONDENT,

Moulvibazar

A Moulvibazar court yesterday sent a man to jail after he was shown arrested and produced before the court in a case filed over rape of a child.

The arrestee, Sudhir Kar, 28, is a resident of Moulvibazar Sadar upazila.

According to the case statement, Sudhir lured the child to an empty house by giving her chocolate when she was returning home from private tuition on Monday evening, and raped her.

Later, when the matter came to light, local people apprehended Sudhir and informed police. Police later went to the spot and detained him, and a case was filed in this connection on Monday night.

He was produced before court shown arrested in the case vesterday morning. The court ordered to send him to jail, said Gazi Md Mahbubur Rahman, officer-in-charge of Moulvibazar Sadar Police Station.

Five return after 2yrs in Indian jail

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Benapole

Five Bangladeshis returned home on Monday night through the Benapole check post after serving two years in an Indian prison.

The returnees, all hailing from Narail district, were handed over by India's Petrapole Immigration Police to their Bangladeshi counterparts at 8:30pm for travel permit processing.

Upon their return, Rights Jessore, an NGO, took them to a shelter yesterday morning, where they will stay before being reunited with their families. Benapole Immigration Police Officer-in-Charge

Imtiaj Bhuiyan said the group had been trafficked to Kerala, India, by brokers who had promised them lucrative jobs.

Chattogram set to celebrate Durga Puja

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Chattogram is all set to celebrate Sharadiya Durga Puja, the largest festival of Bangalee Hindus, with preparations complete across the city and upazilas.

Shopping malls remain crowded as families purchase new clothes, a tradition for the occasion. Rajasree Dutta, seen shopping at Teri Bazar, shared that she buys clothes for her entire family every year. Selim Jahangir, proprietor of Naofa Fashion Boutiques at Apollo Shopping Centre, said sales in his shop were gaining a momentum ahead of Durga Puja. Nitai Prasad Ghosh, president of Chattogram District Puja Udjapan Parishad, said the Durga Puja will be celebrated at 2,122 mandaps this year, down from 2,190 last year due to financial constraints.

Artisans are giving final touches to the idols. They usually work in their workshops that are traditionally known as Pratimaloys.

Paresh Paul is the chief artisan of Shib Durga Mrit Shilpaloy, a Pratimaloy located in Chatteshwari Road area. Visiting his workshop yesterday, it was seen that idols of Durga and other deities were being made.

Paresh said it takes eight to 10 days to complete the work of making a set of idols for Durga Puja. "I lead a team of six members and we complete 12 sets of idols on average during the festival season," he said.

Chattogram's Deputy Commissioner, Farida Khanam, assured that the district administration has taken all necessary steps to ensure a peaceful and harmonious celebration.

"Like every year, Sharodiya Durga Puja will be celebrated in the district with communal harmony, religious solemnity, festive and peaceful atmosphere," she said. "The interim government is giving utmost importance to this matter."
