Frustration mounts

PSC and Directorate
General of Health Services have been requested to arrange another medical examination for those who could not attend, reads the ministry report.

Amid the situation, several successful candidates from 43rd BCS have expressed their growing frustration and disappointment.

"After being recommended for the 43rd BCS, I didn't pursue the next BCS exams, even though I passed the preliminary and written tests. But in a cruel twist of fate, I am still unemployed today," Khalid Hasan, an alumnus of Buet, told The Daily Star.

Requesting to be unnamed, a former student of Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University said, "After receiving the recommendation, I told my mother she wouldn't have to work in the garment factory anymore. But nine months have passed since the final result, and that dream remains unfulfilled."

On December 26, 2023, the PSC recommended the recruitment of 2,805 candidates from the 43rd BCS. Of these, 2,163 candidates were recommended for cadre positions, and 642 were recommended for non-cadre positions.

The recruitment process for this BCS began with the publication of the circular on November 30, 2020.

Among the 2,163 cadre positions, the highest number of recommendations were made for the education cadre, with 803 candidates.

Contacted, a senior official of the public administration ministry said, "We are working on it and expecting to publish the gazette by next week."

During the Durga Puja festivals, the demand for jaggery increases significantly as they are a core ingredient to make the traditional sweets like "naru" and "moa". Retailers from town and villages purchase these jaggery from wholesalers at a price of Tk 105-120 per kg. The photo was taken from the Hathkhola area in Barishal city recently.

Discrimination

Rasheda also stressed the importance of distinguishing between equality and equity.

"We are now witnessing extremism against women.
This extremism is not just religious; it takes various forms," she said, calling on the nation to take a stand against such extremism.

Speaking as chief guest, Fisheries and Livestock Adviser Farida Akhter said, "Women no longer stay silent after enduring abuse.
They are now seeking justice against their perpetrators. If justice is not served, then the state is responsible for this failure. We do not want this failure to continue in the new Bangladesh."

Farida also emphasised the need for a social movement to combat child marriage.

She also said there can be no discrimination based on religion, as the new Bangladesh was founded through a struggle against all forms of discrimination.

Md Saidur Rahman, director general of the NGO Affairs Bureau, called for a united effort to ensure the safety of women and to end discrimination against them.

He also urged people from all walks of life to come together to address the issue of child marriage.

Debra Boyce, chargée d'affaires, high commissioner of Canada to Bangladesh, emphasised that there is no path forward for the country without ending discrimination against women.

She reiterated her country's commitment to working towards this goal in Bangladesh.

Shabheen Anam, executive director of MJF, reiterated that child marriage remains a significant problem in the country, and there is much more work to be done to eradicate it.

"We must ensure the rights of all women, whether they are indigenous, rural, or from any other community," she said.

She also addressed misconceptions about feminism, saying that many people mistakenly believe it opposes men.

"In reality, feminism simply seeks the rights and equity that women are entitled to. MJF envisions a country where men and women receive the rights guaranteed to them by the constitution," she said.

She added that the country has not yet fully developed women's leadership and highlighted the inadequate funding for NGOs working on women's issues.

Sedition case

the government and conspiring against the chief adviser through her Facebook posts that were tantamount to treason. It also damaged the dignity of the government leader, creating unrest and hatred among the public.

The court accepted the case and directed the CID to investigate the matter and submit its report by December 15.
