Traffic police stopped and seized all of these rickshaws for illegally plying the VIP road near Manik Mia Avenue yesterday. An initial lack of police presence following August 5 enabled many rickshaw pullers to start plying such roads. Recently, traffic police have started conducting drives against such illegal activities.

On Sunday, 34 more people were arrested in different areas of Mohammadpur, of which 22 were arrested in joint drives.

According to sources, the criminal activities centring the Geneva camp in Mohammadpur have increased in recent times, especially during the changing circumstances after the fall of the Awami League government on August 5.

The criminal gangs, along with members of the teen gangs, got involved in different criminal offences, including mugging on different roads and areas of Mohammadpur.

Meanwhile, mugging has also been taking place in the neighbouring Dhanmondi area.

According to sources, five cases of snatching have been filed with Dhanmondi

Police Station this month alone.

In addition, 16 snatchers have been arrested. However, local sources said that the mugging incident is happening almost every day on Mirpur Road and Satmasjid Road in Dhanmondi.

They alleged that there were no police or law enforcers in these areas during those incidents.

Md Masud Alam, deputy commissioner of Ramna Division Police, told The Daily Star, "Some incidents may have taken place in Dhanmondi... we have managed to detect and arrest criminals in some incidents, and we are working regarding the others. We have already increased vigilance and patrolling to ensure visible policing and prompt action."

said the court granted Oahidul bail under the conditions that he must not visit or threaten any witnesses, speak to the media, go outside, leave the country, and that his passport must be kept in court custody.

Oahidul, also a former additional inspector general of police, was arrested on April 24, 2018.

He was indicted in a war crimes case on October 16, 2019 after investigation had started on December 5, 2016.

Oahidul from Chandibardi in Madaripur Sadar upazila, joined the Pakistan Army in October 1966. He was transferred to Rangpur Cantonment as a captain in March 1970, and was the lone Bangalee officer of Pakistan Army to fight the 1971 war and killed around 500-600 people on March 28 near the cantonment, said Motiur Rahman, the case's investigation officer.

He was then transferred to Pakistan on March 30, 1971. He eventually returned to Bangladesh and joined the army in 1974, before being sent into "forced retirement" as many were aware of his "war crimes". After the political transition in August 1975, he joined the police force as assistant superintendent in October 1976, and later, became director of NSI, acting DG of NSI and went into retirement in 2005 as an additional IGP.

not be declared unconstitutional, and why the previous actions taken under this act should not be treated as transactions past and closed.

Secretaries at the ministry of law and Jatiya Sangsad Secretariat have been made respondents to the rule.

The rule was issued following a petition filed by five citizens - Badiul Alam Majumdar, secretary of rights organisation Shushashoner Jonno Nagorik, Tofail Ahmed, M Hafizuddin Khan, Md Jobirul Hoque Bhuiyan and Zahrah Rahman - challenging the legality and constitutionality of the 15th amendment.

They submitted the petition as a public interest litigation to the HC on August 18, stating that following the 15th amendment, the nation saw three consecutive failed elections and it ultimately led to the July 2024 uprising and the fall of the government on August 5, 2024.

The 13th amendment was incorporated into the constitution in 1996 to ensure free and fair elections and strengthen democracy. It represented the "will of the people" and a "political consensus and settlement," said the petition.

Meanwhile yesterday, the HC bench of Justice Farah Mahbub and Justice Debasish Roy Chowdhury issued a fresh rule asking the respondents to explain why the Constitution (15th Amendment) Act, 2011 should not be declared contradictory to the constitution and why the previous action taken in pursuance of this law should not be declared illegal.

The bench issued the rule after hearing another petition recently filed by Mofazzal Hossan, a freedom fighter and a resident from Narayanpara of Raninagar in Naogaon, challenging the legality of the 15th amendment.
